Provided that, in towns where carriages are available on hire, the registering officer or the Magistrate or the person to whom the commission has been issued, shall be paid carriage hire for two hours in lieu of travelling allowance, whether the distance travelled be greater or less than one mile.

NOTES REFERRING TO ARTICLES H, I, J AND K.

(i) When two or more copies of a document executed by the same parties are presented for registration at the same time, an ordinary fee shall be payable for each copy; but any extra or additional fee which is payable under Article H, I, J, or K shall be charged as for one document only, no matter how many copies of that document may be presented for registration.

(ii) No extra fee shall be payable under Article H when a document is registered by a Registrar, acting as Sub-Registrar, or by a Registrar in consequence of the Sub-Registrar, by whom it should be registered under section 28, being a party interested in the transaction to which such document relates.

L. The fees chargeable for authenticating or attesting the execution of a power-of-attorney shall be as follows:—

Assuming 300 hundred words to the page, such copying fee may be calculated by counting the number of words in the documents or, if no such calculation is made by the party presenting the document, the registering officer shall estimate the number of pages likely to be thus charged for, but the fee shall in every case be payable on presentation, and in case of miscalculation the document shall not be returned until any deficiency in the fee levied is made good.

Example.—A conveyance is presented for registration containing 1,350 words. If the party presenting the document certify to this fact, the registering officer will at once proceed to charge a fee for three pages (1,350—600=750), i.e., 12 annas. If the number of words is not known, the registering officer may charge for two extra pages, or eight annas only, and the deficiency of four annas must be made good before the document is returned.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

RAISING OF THE DISTRICT OF HOWRAH TO THE STATUS OF AN INDEPENDENT DIVISION.

The HON'BLE RAI HARI MOHAN CHANDRA BAHADUR, in the absence of the HON'BLE BABU MAHENDRA NATH RAY, asked :—

I.—Will the Government be pleased to state whether it has considered the propriety of raising the district of Howrah to the status of an independent district, in regard to both Civil and Collectorate jurisdiction, and if so, whether it has arrived at any decision in respect thereof?

The HON'BLE MR. STEVENSON-MOORE replied :—

"The question of the separation of collectorate jurisdiction was considered in 1903, and it was then decided that no change should be made.

The matter in regard to civil jurisdiction was recently considered, and Government, as at present advised, does not think that separation would be justified."

LOCATION OF A SUBORDINATE JUDGE AT HOWRAH.

The HON'BLE RAI HARI MOHAN CHANDRA BAHADUR, in the absence of the HON'BLE BABU MAHENDRA NATH RAY, asked :—

II.—In connection with the proposal under consideration to locate for the present a Subordinate Judge at Howrah to hear suits and appeals, will the Government be pleased to state—

(i) whether it has arrived at any decision in respect thereof, and (ii) whether the proposal is likely to be given effect to at an early date?

The HON'BLE MR. STEVENSON-MOORE replied :—

"The matter is still under consideration."

BENGAL BUDGET FOR 1913-14.

The discussion of the Budget adjourned from the Meeting of the 2nd April was then resumed.

The HON'BLE MAHARAJA RANAJIT SINHA of Nashipur said :—

"My Lord, I beg to offer my congratulations to the Hon'ble the Finance Member on the satisfactory budget he has laid before the Council and on the fair distribution of our income in various matters of public utility.

"Medical : Dispensary—District Board.—My Lord, there are very few districts in our Province which are not afflicted with malaria. We are grateful to your Excellency's Government for the free distribution of quinine and for the deputation of Sub-Assistant Surgeons to the interior of the districts at the time of the malarial season ; but, my Lord, malaria lasts almost seven or eight months in a year, and besides this, epidemic diseases such as cholera and smallpox break out at intervals ; so practically speaking, there is not a single month in the whole year when some disease or other does not prevail in our mufassal districts, and so the people are in great need of medical aid all the year round. There are places where there are no doctors or dispensaries and there are people who cannot afford to call doctors from distant places, and at the same time it is not possible for them to go to the headquarters of the district or subdivision for medical relief in all cases. Formerly the people were accustomed to take Ayurvedic medicines, but as the State does not encourage this system of treatment, it is gradually declining. In the mufassal it is not possible to have good Kavirajas, and what we really find is that the people are treated by quacks, and the result is that many are carried away without any medical help at all. The other day, in reply to a resolution moved by my hon'ble friend Dr. Sarkar, the Hon'ble the Vice-President expressed his sympathy with the desire of the hon'ble mover in increasing the number of dispensaries, but he said that the matter rested entirely with the District Board. As the Government is now going to supplement the resources of the District Boards by additional grants of a permanent nature, I think the Government will be justified in enjoining upon the District Boards to increase the number of outdoor dispensaries in the interior of the districts for giving medical help to the people, and I am sure that, if this could be done, several lives will be saved from untimely death.

"Municipalities.—My Lord, previously, the municipalites had the power of appointing their own medical officers for their dispensaries, but since lately they have been deprived of this privilege in cases where their dispensaries are situated at the headquarters of Subdivisions. We find that in many places only Sub-Assistant Surgeons are sanctioned for Subdivisions. In such cases if municipalities ask for the services of Assistant Surgeons, they are to contribute not the ordinary pay of the officers appointed for their dispensaries, but a fixed contribution, which is much higher than what would have been the cost of the municipalities in case they are allowed to appoint their own men. My Lord, when no medical officer could be appointed without the approval of the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, I do not see any harm if the municipalities could have the privilege of appointing their own men for their dispensaries even at the headquarters of Subdivisions. We are fully aware that the policy of the Government is not unnecessarily to interfere in the workings of the local bodies, and so I am confident that your Excellency will be pleased to restore to them the privilege which they enjoyed before.

"Nurses.—There is a great want felt amongst Indian households for proper nurses. We are grateful to Her Excellency Lady Carmichael for the keen interest she is taking in the training of Indian women for the purpose of supplying this want, and I am sure that your Excellency's Government will encourage this laudable undertaking by liberal grants in the matter.

"Jungle cutting.—My Lord, the other day I suggested jungle cutting within the municipal areas. My object was not that the Government should spend large amounts in cutting down jungles to improve the sanitation within the municipal area but what I meant was that, in the mufassal, municipal towns, almost all the houses are covered more or less not only with jungle, but with superfluous trees, so much so that they prevent light and ventilation of air and make the place unhealthy.

"Under section 195 of the Bengal Municipal Act, (Ben. Act III of 1884, it is doubtful if the Commissioners have the power to enforce the cutting down of such trees; but if the municipalities could be provided with some funds, they could easily give some money out of these, by way of compensation to the owners or occupiers of such houses, and induce them to have their trees cut down. Of course I cannot say with any certainty that the cutting of jungle or trees alone would drive away malaria from the place, but, my Lord, I am sure that, if we could get rid of jungle and superfluous trees, the sanitation of the town would undoubtedly improve.

"Water-supply.—My Lord, the other day the Hon'ble Sir William Duke, in reply to a question brought forward by my hon'ble friend Babu Surendra Nath Ray, said that the Government was always ready to help the municipalities in the matter of water-supply and drainage, if proper schemes were forthcoming and for want of such schemes the Government could not spend the amount which was in its contemplation to give as grants to the local bodies. My Lord, it is the general impression in the mufassal municipalities that the Government would not contribute more than ⅓rd of the total estimated cost of such works, and that they would themselves have to provide for the balance. There are towns where there are no big zamindars or successful professional men who could easily afford to pay liberal donations to help such a laudable cause. We know that the Government is always ready to advance loans to the local bodies for such purposes, but their resources are so limited that they cannot, with ordinary incomes, repay the same, and so the Commissioners, notwithstanding their keen desire to supply their towns with water-works and proper drainage feel reluctant to approach the Government in this respect. My Lord, I think if the Government in this respect be so pleased as to have the water-works and drainage schemes prepared for them free of cost according to their real needs, the Government will be in a position to judge what sum will be needed to effect these improvements in each individual case, and then they may call upon the municipalities to contribute according to their might, and the balance may be met by the Government. So I am inclined to think that there should not be any fixed standard of contribution, but it should be decided according to the circumstances of each case.

"My Lord, we are deeply indebted to your Excellency for the keen interest you are taking for removing the long-felt want regarding the supply of pure drinking water in rural areas, and already a provision of Rs. 38,000 has been made for the appointment of Overseers to report the real condition of rural water-supply, and a further grant of Rs. 50,000 to the District Boards has been provided for the improvement of the same. and we are confident that, ere long, this will be an accomplished fact not only in the rural areas but also in the Municipal towns.

"My Lord, the other day I moved for the dredging of the river Bhagirathi, and I understand that there are several other rivers which formerly served as waterways and are now being gradually silted up. If they could be made navigable all the year round, it will not only facilitate the water traffic, but also improve the sanitation of the places through which such rivers pass.

"Police.—My Lord, as regards Police, I find that there has been a gradual increase in the expenditure under this head. I have only one suggestion to make in this respect. The hands of the Sub-Inspectors of Police in charge of thanas are so much full in submitting returns and carrying on correspondence that they seldom get sufficient time to devote for the purpose of investigating cases. So I think that if a special officer is appointed for each thana for investigating purposes alone, I am sure that there will be a marked improvement in the detection of crimes which are otherwise left undetected.

"Education.—My Lord, then as regards Education, we are extremely grateful to the Government for the gradual expenditure under this head for extending education in this country. But, my Lord, the teachers employed in lower classes of the schools are so very poorly paid, that they could hardly maintain themselves and their families in these days of hard living. Moreover, their prospects of promotions are not also encouraging. There are men who are working in this department on the same salaries for years together with a very slight increment, and it is not possible that we could expect better work from such disheartened persons. On these men depends the groundwork of our future generations. and so I appeal to my hon friend the Director of Public Instruction that their cases may be favourably considered.

"My Lord. almost all our countrymen are nowadays convinced of the importance and utility of female education, but the difficulty is that, owing to our peculiar custom, the girls are not permitted to attend public schools after their marriageable ages, and so if some schemes could be devised to extend female education within the parda, I am sure female education in this country will expand at no distant date. In some places Mission ladies go round the houses of parda ladies to give lessons to them, and if we can secure a good number of lady teachers, they may, in some individual cases, visit the houses of parda women; in many cases may attend at some central place where parda ladies may assemble for receiving instruction.

"My Lord, the other day, in reply to my question, the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr said that the Director of Public Instruction had been considering proposals for reviving the public examination at the end of the middle English school course, and I think similar examinations in respect of lower and upper primary and middle vernacular courses should also be revived. This will be a great encouragement to the boys and girls to attend schools.

"My Lord, our Province is an agricultural one, and the boys of the primary schools are generally drawn from that class, and it will be of great use to them in their lives if they are taught how to improve their lands and increase their crops; and so, in my humble opinion, the subject of agriculture should form a part of their studies.

"Law.—My Lord, the present mode of serving summonses by peons is not only expensive but sometimes it becomes vexatious. The peons generally do not bear very good reputations, and the suitors are very much harassed in the matter of services of summonses. There is a universal complaint in this respect, and if the summonses now served in in open postcards could be served by registered post instead there will be not only a reduction in the expenditure on account of curtailment in the number of peons, but it will save a great deal of harassment and trouble to the suitors. I appeal to your Excellency's Government that this may be given a trial in a few selected districts, and that, if this system prove successful, it may be gradually extended to other districts."

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH RAY said :—

"My Lord, we are grateful to the Government of India for the large assignments made by that Government mainly for education and sanitation grants which have enabled your Excellency's Government to show an opening balance amounting to Rs. 2,83,23,000 compared to the total receipts from Provincial revenues of Rs. 5,92,56,000. From the colsing balance of 1912-13, however, Rs. 50,20,000 out of the 75 lakhs. Government of India non-recurring grant for education, and Rs. 13,25,000 for sanitation, i.e., a total of Rs. 63,45,000, should be excluded, as the amounts will not be actually assigned by the Government of India this year for expenditure and hence cannot be treated as receipts for the current year. The opening balance should therefore be Rs 2,19,78,000, a little more than $\frac{1}{3}$rd of the total revenue receipts. We cannot, however, expect that the Government of India will be able year after year to grant such large sums for education and sanitation, and the question of finding ways and means to meet the demand for the expansion and improvement of education, of better and improved sanitation, the supply of pure drinking water and the development of the waterways of Bengal is a matter for the serious consideration of your Excellency's Government. The receipts from the revenues assigned to the Provincial Government by the three years' contract entered into from 1912-13 do not appear sufficient even to meet the normal expenses of the Administration on the present scale, far less to effect any improvements in some of its branches. It would not be too much to say that your Excellency's Government has the whole-hearted support of every Member of this Council in asking the Government of India that, when permanent arrangements are made, the normal revenue of this Province should suffice to meet the demands which I have enumerated above. I need hadrly say that, without such permanent arrangements, no large and extensive works of a permanent character can be undertaken on the off chance of getting "Doles" from the Government of India.

"Education.—The total amount budgeted for education this year is about 1 crore and 38⅔ lakhs consisting of Rs. 25½ lakhs, the recurring grant from the Imperial Government, Rs. 52¾ lakhs, the non-recurring grant from the Imperial Government and about Rs. 60 lakhs from the Provincial revenue. This is no doubt a large amount compared with the expenditure on education in previous years, but it will soon be found that they are quite inadequate to meet the demand for the expansion of education. The demand is not only for higher and improved university education, but also for better secondary education, and I regret to say that, in recent discussions on educational matters, the needs of the secondary schools have not met with that attention both from the Government and the public which they deserve. The condition of the secondary schools, both aided and unaided, is anything but satisfactory. Not only are the teachers poorly paid, but the equipments and the general outfit of the schools are far from approaching an ideal condition, while in many instances the schoolhouses are not suitable places where boys can be trained to a high ideal. It must be remembered that they are the nursing grounds from which students go to the university and the professions. Unless the boys are properly trained in schools, they cannot take proper advantage of the higher education imparted to them in colleges. It is necessary therefore that the school authorities must have sufficient funds at their disposal to enable them to improve the condition of the school buildings, as well as the tutorial staff. In reply to a question asked by me at a recent meeting of the Council, the Government were pleased to say that the principle governing the grant of aids to secondary schools is that the grant-in-aid should not ordinarily exceed ½ of the total income derived from the school fees, subscriptions and contributions from sources other than Government, but as a matter of fact the contributions by Government very rarely, if ever, come to that limit and generally are only about ⅓th or ¼th or even less of the total income derived by the school instead of being ½rd as it seems to be the intention of Government. Not only is it necessary that this ½ limit of Government contribution should be insisted on as the minimum, but also that a much larger non-recurring grant should actually be given in a more liberal spirit than is now being done to the schools for general equipment,

"The question of the development of university education—general, medical and technical—has been prominently before the public and the Government of late, and the policy of Government in founding a residential university at Dacca has generally met with public approval; but what we do not understand is why the same help which the Government intend to extend to the Dacca University should not also be extended to the existing University in Calcutta for the development of higher education.

"Calcutta University and proposed Dacca University.—The Government were pleased to appoint a Committee for the purpose of preparing a scheme for the Dacca University. I must say at the outset that I am not one of those who are against the establishment of a university at Dacca, though I may not agree with all the recommendations contained in the Report. But certain suggestions are made in the Report, I mean the Report of the Dacca University, about the staff to be appointed for teaching Arts and Science "There is a further point in connection with the recruitment of the staff of the new University", we read in the Report (Chapter X), "on which we desire to lay special stress. It is highly desirable, especially at the outset, that a limited number of professors of eminence should be appointed on special terms. Their qualifications and attainments should be of the very highest; and it is necessary to get men of the greatest distinction that it would, in our opinion, be justifiable to offer the large salaries necessary to secure their services. A sum of even Rs. 2,000 a month would not in our opinion be excessive, and we recognise that even for this amount men of the kind contemplated may not be easily procurable. In general, men of about 40 years of age will be best, as younger men will not have had the necessary experience. Younger men of brilliant parts and great promise would also be of immense service to the new university; hence we suggest that in recruiting Indian Educational Service officers, the initial salary of Rs. 500 should be exceeded in any case where this is found necessary. Similarly, in order that suitable men may be attracted by the offer of good salaries, the new officers of the Provincial Educational Service should not all be recruited in the lower grades, and as the new posts will be distributed throughout the grades, this plan can be adopted without injury to officers already in the Service."

"It is necessary, however, to see what is being done for the Calcutta University or the Presidency College—the only purely Government Arts and Science College in Calcutta. In answering this question I have consulted the last Calendar of the Calcutta University, and the last Quarterly Civil List of Bengal. It appears from the list of Instructive Staff as given in the University Calendar that there are four professors who are drawing a salary of Rs. 1,000, four drawing a salary of Rs. 700, two drawing a salary of Rs. 650, four drawing a salary of Rs. 600, two drawing a salary of Rs. 550, two drawing a salary of Rs. 300, one drawing a salary of Rs. 250, five drawing a salary of Rs. 200, and there are a few others (whose names I could not find in the Civil List, and who I think must be temporary professors) probably drawing a salary of Rs. 150 to Rs. 200.

"Now, if we look to the history of services of these professors, what do we find? We find that some of the professors who are drawing a salary of Rs. 1,000 have 20 years' service to their credit—men like Mr. James and others.

"Is it proper that the Calcutta University, the Presidency College—the premier College in India—should be starved while money is spent in other quarters? Is it not a fact that boys by hundreds cannot get admission in the Presidency College in Calcutta owing to inadequate staff and insufficient accommodation? I do not by this mean to object to the appointment of good professors in the Dacca University, if it is necessary to appoint such professors for its efficiency. What I do say, however,—and say with all the emphasis I can command—make the Calcutta University, or at least the Presidency College in Calcutta a model College equipped with the best staff in Science and Arts with accommodation for a much larger number of students before you think of spending any money anywhere else for educational purposes; that if more money has to be spent, it ought to be spent first for the bettering of the Calcutta University and the Presidency College.

"The Calcutta University will, I need hardly say, attract, for a long time to come, by far the major portion of the student community of the Province even if the development of the Calcutta University cannot proceed for want of funds. There is a spirit of education pervading the whole atmosphere round College Square and where, I need hardly say, a proper teaching university might be established. It must be admitted on all hands that the work by the Calcutta University during the past seven or eight years fully justifies the claim for more liberal treatment at the hands of Government. One more word with reference to this subject.

"Is it not worth considering before the Dacca University is started and its teaching staff appointed whether professors on a salary of Rs. 1,800 or Rs. 2,000 are really necessary to make the Dacca University a success? Men like Professors Tawney, Croft, Elliott, Pedler and last but not the least the present worthy Director of Public Instruction, the Hon'ble Mr. Kuchler, have spent their lives in the Presidency College on a salary of Rs. 500 rising to Rs. 1,500. On a consideration of these facts I hope Government will see their way not to spend money in the way they have been advised to spend at Dacca.

"While on the subject of education I must acknowledge with thanks the contribution of two lakhs of rupees by Government to the Calcutta University Institute. Your Lordship has taken a personal and a paternal interest in the welfare of the student community, and it is but befitting that the Institute should get a local habitation during your Lordship's administration.

"Medical Education.—The question of giving greater facilities for proper medical training, which the present Medical College in Calcutta is unable to give, is one deserving of the serious consideration of Government. It is probably a fact not unknown to your Lordship's Government that year after year a large number of students, who seek admission in the Calcutta Medical College, have to be refused admission owing to insufficient teaching staff and accommodation. I am informed that only about a tenth of the applicants are fortunate enough in getting themselves admitted. There is a large number of Arts Colleges not only in Calcutta but in Dacca, Rajshahi, Pabna, Chittagong and Barisal. I do not take into account the Arts Colleges at Cuttack, Sylhet and Gauhati, which are now outside this Province. In the proposed Dacca University, there will no doubt be a Medical College, but arrangements are to be made to admit only 50 students a year. That will not be sufficient to meet the want. My Hon'ble friend Dr. Sarbadhikari asked for a grant of five lakhs of rupees or a substantial amount to help in the establishment of private Medical Schools in Calcutta. The reply, however, of the Hon'ble Mr. Kuchler was far from reassuring. If the Government be not willing to help any private Medical School or College in Calcutta, it ought to open more classes for boys to receive medical training in the Calcutta Medical College. I think that, with an initial grant of three lakhs of rupees and an additional recurring expenditure of about a lakh of rupees per annum, the Government will be able to found six or seven chairs with the necessary assistants in the present Medical College. The appointment of additional professors and assistants will enable Government to open additional classes in the Calcutta Medical College and supply a real want of the educated community of the Province.

"There is another matter in this connection which I ought to mention for the consideration of Government. There is, so far as I am aware, at present no hostel attached to the Calcutta Medical College except probably one for the military students. Hostels are now attached almost to every Arts College in the Province. If there is any class of students, who require a hostel, it is the students of the Medical College. They have not only to attend the College during lecture hours, but have to be on duty to attend to the patients of the Medical College Hospital both during day time and at night. It is therefore a legitimate grievance with them that like the students of other colleges, they have no proper accommodation. When the old Hindu Hostel was in existence, not only students of the Arts Colleges but students of the Calcutta Medical College had accommodation there. But now the Government Hostel is practically a hostel for the students of the Presidency College.

"We know that these questions require funds to be solved, but what we want is that funds should be found by Government for these purposes and that, in making their contract with the Government of India for assignment of revenue, your Excellency's Government will take into consideration all these facts. We are no doubt thankful to the Government of India for their recent policy on educational questions, but we cannot take for granted that the future development of education in this Presidency should depend on grants from the Government of India. If they are able to find funds for the expansion of primary education, that would be enough.

"I would also suggest for the consideration of your Excellency's Government the question of establishing an Education Board to advise Government not only on the educational problems but also on the question of proper expenditure of the Provincial and Imperial grants on education. Such a Board it is expected, would be in a better position to bring to the notice of Government the needs and requirements of educational institutions and advise the head of the Education Department in the proper distribution of Government grants. When every school in the Province has a school committee, why should not the Member in charge of the Education portfolio be assisted by a Committee consisting of Members from among the Members of Council and others whom the Government may think proper to appoint?"

"Provincial, Judicial, Executive and Educational Services.—I want to say a few words about the salaries and prospects of the Provincial, Judicial, Executive and Educational Services. It is a matter of great satisfaction that a sum of Rs. 50,000 has been provided in the Budget estimates as a provision for the regrading of Munsifs. We hope and trust these hard-working and deserving officers will get the increment which they richly deserve. The Royal Commission is now holding its sittings to report on the salaries and prospects of the entire Public Service in India. It will, I think, take a number of years for the Commission to submit its report. By the time the recommendations of the Commission are published and steps taken to carry them out, members of the Provincial Judicial Service, who are at present in the lowest grade of Sub-Judges or who are first-grade Munsifs, and members of the Executive Service who are in receipt of a salary of Rs. 500 or Rs. 600 and also a large number of Members of the Provincial Educational Service will have retired from the Service. A number of deserving men will thus be deprived of being sharers in a scheme of promotion.

"If newspaper reports be correct, the Punjab Government, and probably the Governments of the Central and United Provinces of Agra and Oudh have recently sent in schemes through the Government of India to the Secretary of State for facilitating the promotion of members of the Covenanted Civil Service, as there has been a block in their promotion in those provinces. I would earnestly and respectfully ask the Government to consider if it is not possible to frame such a scheme at the present moment by which the members of the Provincial, Judicial and Executive and Educational Services may have their prospects bettered. The answer given by the Hon'ble Mr. Kuehler in answer to my hon'ble friend Dr. Sarbadhikari that papers are already before the Secretary of State with reference to the members of the Provincial Educational Service is no doubt of an assuring character.

"As regards the members of the Provincial Executive Service, they are no doubt known as the pet children of Government. But I do not think anything in reality has been done by Government to further their salaries and prospects except perhaps increasing the salary of the lowest grade of Deputy Magistrates and Deputy Collectors from Rs. 200 to Rs. 250. I need hardly say that they form the backbone of the Administration of the Province—upon their devoted heads falls the brunt of the work. It is therefore but meet and proper that something should now be done by Government on behalf of a deserving class of public servants in the shape of giving at least temporary allowances.

"In this connection I think I ought to bring another matter to the notice of Government. This is so far as I am aware not a new matter. It was brought to the notice of Government before. I think Government should give accommodation not only to Subdivisional Officers, but to all members, both of the Provincial, Executive and Judicial Services, if possible free of cost, or only at a nominal rent. In some places in the mufassal it is very difficult to get any accommodation at all—accommodation in which a gentleman, one in the position of a Munsif or a Deputy Magistrate can live. Government derive a large income from the Law Courts. Why should not Government keep their servants contented, happy and comfortable?

"District Boards and Local Boards.—I think it proper to speak a few words about District Boards and Local Boards. It had been their constant complaint that on account of want of funds they could not carry out the necessary improvements. That they have done good work with the limited means at their disposal admits of no doubt. In the Administration Report of Bengal for the year 1910-11, we read "within the limits of its present resources the Administration continues to progress steadily and without friction." Formation of village Committees which ought to have been extended long ago have not been so extended. This fact has been emphasised in the Report already quoted. "It is absolutely useless", says the Report, "to urge the extension of the system of village committees, unless resources are placed at their disposal sufficient to permit of their executing some works of utility, and at first they must necessarily rely mainly upon the District Boards. At present the working of unions is condemned from year to year, whereas, as a matter of fact, they have had little or no work to perform, and the experiment is of such importance, if village government in Bengal is ever to become a reality, that it should no longer continue to be handicapped by the financial difficulties which have so far impeded it."

"'The crying want,' says the Report, 'of all District Boards is an enhanced revenue, and the development of Local Boards and village unions must continue to be hampered until that can be secured.'

"I think the Government of India have at last solved the problem of financial difficulties of the District Boards and their dependencies. By the recurring grant of 25 lakhs of rupees to these Boards, viz., the amount to Public Works cess, we think the District Boards of Bengal will be able to stand on their own legs and be able to carry out many necessary improvements."

"Sanitation.—We are all thankful to the Government of India for assigning a recurring grant of 5 lakhs and a non-recurring grant of 20 lakhs for urban sanitation. To our lay minds the question of sanitation is mainly a question of the supply of pure water and the improvement of drainage.

"On the 14th March, I brought forward a resolution before this Council recommending to your Lordship's Government to spend the amount of 20 lakhs, or rather 6¾ lakhs out of the sum of 20 lakhs, which was available this year from out of the Imperial grant of 20 lakhs for sanitation, for water-supply and the improvement of drainage. The fate of the resolution is well known. I was told that nearly 22 lakhs had been set apart in the Budget for sanitation. I carefully read the Financial Statement, and all that I said was from the Financial Statement. What I then said and what I still say is that the gift of 20 lakhs of rupees from the Government of India was a large gift, and that as water-supply and the improvement of drainage are the crying needs of the Province, and as by the grant of the Public Works cess to the District Boards amounting to about 25 lakhs of rupees per annum, those needs of the District Board will be supplied, and as the mufassal municipalities are generally poor—unable to make both ends meet—this dear and precious gift from the Government of India may be spent in meeting, however partially, the two crying needs of the Province. I never said nor did I mean to say that this was the only amount to be spent for water-supply and the improvement of drainage. This is to be over and above the amount of the Provincial grant for sanitation. The country still hopes that, though my resolution was not carried nor accepted by Government, and though the amount has not been earmarked for the particular purposes I proposed, still the Government will be pleased to see that the amount is spent for no other purpose.

"Mufassal towns and villages are being depopulated by malaria and cholera, the result of want of pure drinking water and proper drainage. Ask anyone you like, anyone of those who have the misfortune of living in a mufassal town or village, and he will tell you, that what they want is pure drinking water. The want is deeply felt and there is no doubt about the matter. It is for your Lordship's Government to see that the legitimate and the just demands of the people are adequately supplied.

"If I may be allowed to make a suggestion with reference to this question, I should say in many cases municipalities are not at all aware of the fact that Government have the intention of assisting them in their efforts to get pure drinking water or improved drainage. What Government ought to do now is to ask all municipalities if they are in need of pure drinking water and drainage, and if their answer be in the affirmative to ask them to send matured schemes either prepared by the Sanitary Engineer or by any other competent authority and when they are so received by the Government to ascertain what share of the expenses the municipalities are prepared to bear and what amount the Government are prepared to contribute towards such expenses. In many cases municipalities will be only too glad to carry on the work with the help of a fairly substantial contribution from Government.

"I think, my Lord, the municipalities can legitimately claim a fair contribution from Government in all works of sanitation and improvement. Such contributions are made in European countries. We read, "Government subscriptions from a source of Municipal revenue almost unknown a half century ago, but now a striking feature in the Municipal budgets of the European cities. They may be divided into two classes : special subsidies and general grants, the former being for certain special purposes to which their use is limited. while the latter are a fixed share of certain revenues collected by the general Government, which are available for the general purposes of the Municipalities."

"In Great Britain, the system of general grants was established in 1888, replacing former special subsidies, by assigning to the local authorities the whole or part of the revenue from certain succession duties (inheritance taxes) license-taxes, and four-tenths of the probate duties, to which was added in 1891 additional revenue from duties on beer and spirits. The income from these local taxation licenses is nearly stationary and does not tend to increase with the growth of local expenditure. The revenue from both classes of Government grants in Great Britain is about £11,000,000, which is 15 per cent. of the total ordinary local revenue excluding loans." (Fairlies' Municipal Administration.)

"Irrigation.—While on the question of sanitation, I think I should say a few words about the allied question of irrigation. In many cases the question of irrigation is a question of the drainage of a locality. Schemes like the Magrahât drainage scheme are necessary to be carried out throughout the country ; so also the question of the clearing of the silted-up rivers and canals. A good flowing river or canal is not only a source of pure drinking water, a means of cheap communication, and a source of irrigation for the fields when rain fails, but also for the drainage of the country. In considering the question of the improvement of canals and silted-up rivers, it will not do simply to see whether the expenses incurred on them brings in a return from the tolls levied on boats of cargo sufficient to cover the interest and maintenance charges for the future. Expenditure for the supply of pure drinking water or for improvement of drainage does not bring a definite return in the shape of income. It must be remembered that insurance against flood and dearth of water is a most productive and useful expenditure. The question of the waterways of Bengal should, in my opinion, be tackled only in this way.

"I hope and trust that before the year 1913-14 closes, the scheme for widening the Tolly's Nala and of having a new steamer or ship-going canal from the Hooghly to the Bidyadhari or the Sundarbans will be taken up in hand. This proposal has been before Government for more than ten years. I hope this Government will not rest satisfied by simply sending up a scheme to the Government of India, but see that the project is taken in hand as early as practicable.

"Larger powers to Municipalities and District Boards.—I think the time has come to give greater power to the Municipalities and District Boards. The Royal Commission upon Decentralisation in India made the following recommendation in 1909. In volume I, paragraph 843, of their Report, they say, "We consider that municipalities should have a free hand in regard to their budgets, though these should go through the Collector, to the Commissioner for information, and that the only check required is that such municipality should maintain a minimum standing balance to be prescribed by the municipality. They cannot make real progress if constantly kept in financial leading strings, nor can local self-government become a a reality if local bodies are habitually protected against themselves"

"It is only to three or four Municipalities that the larger powers recommended by the Royal Commission have been given. I think the time has come when this power should be given, if not to all, at least to a much larger number of municipalities. I think larger powers should be given to District and Local Boards as well. The District Boards have been in existence for more than a quarter of a century, and if, even after this long training in local self-government, District Boards are not to have their own Chairman, then there must be something radically wrong in the training received by my countrymen. It is worth while to make an experiment at least tentatively in some of the districts of the Province.

"While speaking of education, I have advocated the establishment of an Education Board. I think the time has come when it is necessary to have not only an Education Board but also an Advisory Board or some such Board as the Central Board suggested by my hon'ble friend Rai Hari Mohan Chandra Bahadur to help the member in charge of the Department of Sanitation,—of Municipalities and District Boards. With the large grants both from the Provincial revenue and Government of India for Sanitation and Education, with the larger responsibilities thrown upon the Provincial Governments, it is necessary that there should be Advisory Boards to help Government in the proper expenditure thereof. If there are persons, Members of your Lordship's Council, willing to assist the Government with their advice and co-operation, I think the time has come when such assistance should be availed of.

"I hope, however, to speak on this subject at a future time."

THE HON'BLE MR. CHAKRAVARTI said :—

"My Lord, before I address myself to the budget itself, if I may be permitted to make one or two suggestions with regard to the procedure of this House, I will suggest that, as regards the Financial Statement, if the exigencies of office permit, the Financial Statement may be presented to the Members, from time to time at various stages, a little earlier in order to enable them to study the statement; I think it would save the time of the House and also it would enable the Hon'ble Members to frame their resolutions after due consideration.

"The other suggestion which I venture to make is this. With regard to any intended legislation, if the draft Bill were published about two or three months before the time that it was introduced in this Council, and both the public and the Hon'ble Members had an opportunity of considering the provisions of the new measure of law, I venture to think that a great deal of grievance which is now being felt, will be removed.

"Then, My Lord, coming to the question of the budget itself, I am in complete accord with some of the Hon'ble Members who have referred to the grievances that we have at the present moment, with regard to the control over our own revenues. Time will come, I sincerely hope, when we shall have complete control over our own revenues. As long as we do not get complete control of that, all that we can do is to look after what little we have. It was pointed out by the Hon'ble Sir William Duke that, apart from all assignments or allotments made by the Supreme Government, we have only about 11 lakhs for non-recurring expenditure. This is not a very large sum of money, and all that we can say is that, in course of time, the Imperial Government will find it both convenient, and at the same time just, that we should have control over our own revenues, we contributing our own share to the Imperial exchequer. But as long as that does not happen, I venture to think that if it were possible for the Government to give the Finance Committee more scope for dealing with the budget than what it is now, that is instead of the Finance Committee being obliged only to deal with the very small fraction of the grants, but the whole budget itself, I think the non-official members who are elected for the purpose of assisting the Committee, will find some useful work in making suggestions.

"Then, My Lord, with regard to a small matter of expenditure, I desire to draw the attention of Government. Those who have anything to do with the original side of the High Court, have for a long time felt the necessity for short-hand-writers to take down evidence in what are technically called witness-actions. I am told, my Lord, that an application was made long ago by the High Court, and that the application was not acceded to. The expenditure is, after all, very, very small, and non-official European members, who are on this side of the House, will agree with me that it is often extremely difficult to take down evidence, especially if the witness happens to be an English-speaking one, and the writer writes long hand, and, in the result, the notes of evidence taken down do not represent the evidence which the witness has given.

"Passing on to the question of local bodies, the rural Boards and mufassil municipalities, the position seems to me to be very disappointing. The municipalities number 111 in this Presidency, with a population of about 20 lakhs, and taking the grant of Rs. 5 lakhs made by the Government, the total income for 1911-1912, was 50 lakhs, and thus the income is not even Rs. 50,000 for each municipality. It is not to be expected that they will be able to do very much.

"Then, My Lord, if we take the question of the district boards, there are 25 of them, and their income, all told, is Rs. 60 lakhs, including a sum of Rs. 6 lakhs granted by the Government. They have to deal with a population of 4¼ crores, something like 41 millions, and they have to deal with an area of 68 thousand square miles, and by a simple calculation the result is this, that the amount of expenditure which they can devote to public purposes is only Rs. 88-4 per year per square mile. If the same figure is taken in another way, we have the enormous sum of 2¼ annas annually per head of the population with regard to district boards. After all, it seems that the complaint which is made for money is certainly legitimate.

"My Lord, with regard to these rural boards and mufassil municipalities, I frankly confess that there has been a charge and it probably is, to a certain extent, justifiable that they are somewhat, apathetic but the scope which is given to them, is also very, very limited, and if they find that they cannot possibly exercise their functions with any hope of beneficial results, the result is no doubt apathy. We have heard a great deal about efficiency. I am certainly in favour of efficiency of every kind, and efficiency in district boards and also in rural boards, but for the purpose for which the Local Self-Government Act was passed, the question of efficiency was not considered as of the same importance as the education of the people in self-government.

"If I may appeal to what Your Excellency yourself said, when Governor of Madras, with regard to efficiency, I certainly venture to think that even at the sacrifice of a little efficiency if the district boards and the rural boards have more scope for the purpose of controlling their own affairs it would be for their benefit. The same view was taken by the Royal Commission on Decentralization, and therefore I venture to think that, apart from giving these district boards and rural boards more funds, they ought to be given more control over their own affairs.

"Now, My Lord, as regards elementary and secondary education, much has already been said; probably some Hon'ble Members will say something more. In regard to higher education, I would only allude to this in passing, because the Hon'ble Dr. Sarkar has dealt with the Sibpur College and the Maharaja-Dhiraj Bahadur of Burdwan has dealt with the college for the well-to-do classes in the proposed University of Dacca.

"I am entirely at one with them, but I regret that I cannot agree with my Hon'ble friend to my left (the Raja of Kakina) with regard to the criticism that he has made in connection with the well-to-do college. As the Hon'ble Maharaja of Burdwan has pointed out, even assuming that we have a well recognized demand in respect of this, it is only for the good of us all that we should work together in the same college, take part in the same games, and ought to have all inequalities of ours rubbed off and make us all associate with each other.

"Now, as regards agriculture. I have had something to say in this Council a short time ago, and I only allude to it for the purpose of meeting the remark of the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr, when he said that it would be sheer waste of money to make experiments with regard to agricultural improvements, because the ordinary peasant would not avail himself of the experiment on account of want of means on his own part. If that were logically carried into effect, the result will be a condemnation even of the Rangpur scheme; but I rather think that what the Hon'ble Member meant was that the expenditure, if incurred at all, ought to be cautious. I welcome what fell from him with regard to farming experiments at Rangpur; but, at the same time, I venture to suggest that it will be found possible to start similar experimental farms in other parts of the country; because I do not desire that the failure of one farm—supposing that the Rangpur farm fails—should result in the condemnation of the system itself. It may be that, on account of the local conditions of Rangpur or on account of the peculiar management, the particular experiment may not succeed. However, my view is, I may be mistaken, that the only way we can solve the problem of unemployment is by inducing people to go back to their villages, and go back to agriculture. The question always is as regards the employment of a larger and larger number of men who get education from the Universities and from other institutions as to what they are going to do in their after-life. The one cry is more appointment, but even if every employment were thrown open to the people of the country, there would not be, in the course of time, sufficient employment for all the men who are being educated. Therefore, the only way to furnish a second string to their bow is to make them return to agriculture, which I venture to think is a healthy occupation, and to which they ought to be induced to resort.

"The next subject, to which I would like to allude, is the question to which the Hon'ble Mr. Surendra Nath Banerji referred. We have been very much disturbed with recent instances of restlessness and disorder in our midst. For the checking of these acts the Government have had to rely on the energy and acumen of the Police. The expenses under this head have, as it has been pointed out, steadily increased, the present budget proving no exception in this respect. There is the old, and not altogether unjustifiable, prejudice against the Police, and the people in general are deterred, by fear of consequences, from rendering the assistance which facilitates detective operations. Moreover, as the Statesman has very properly observed, the illiterate character of the people renders it impracticable to utilize those methods of publicity which, in European countries, enable the entire law abiding community to co-operate in the work of detection. My Lord, I gather from what I have heard within this Council Chamber and outside, that there seems to be a general desire for co-operation between the Government and the public. Will it not be fitting in the nature of things that, at this juncture when lawlessness and disorder are out and about, and the police appear to be powerless either to detect or prevent them, the Government should evince its desire for co-operation by taking the people into their confidence, and by supplying respectable persons in different selected areas with fire-arms and weapons, so that they may feel that in protecting the lives and the property of themselves and their neighbours they are also co-operating with the Police and the Government in suppressing violent acts of lawlessness and disorder?

"My Lord, all the suggestions that I have made to-day, whether in the sphere of legislation, finance, local self-government or protection are calculated to remove the utter helplessness of the people, as the Amrita Bazar Patrika puts it, and to foster the growth of manliness amongst the people. The problems that the Government and the people alike have to face are the problems of rural depopulation and urban congestion. The cry of water-supply, the cry for sanitary reform, the cry of agricultural indebtedness, the cry of illiteracy, the cry for protection against lawnessness, should all be replaced by the cry "Back to the land," "Back to the country," "Back to the old village system." Otherwise, we shall never get rid of the grievances that we have got already but we shall, in a short time, add to them all the horrors of socialism and all the dangers and difficulties of modern industrialism. Not that they can be absolutely prevented, but that is no reason why they should not be checked and kept, if possible, within bounds. What does the cry "Back to the land, mean? It means and implies either that the old village system should be revived in its entirety, or that the rural boards and the village-union should be reconstructed on a thoroughly popular basis. In either case it is necessary that the people in rural areas should be allowed to police their own villages, settle, if possible, their own disputes, spend their own local rates, adapt elementary education to the needs of their locality, look after their own sanitary requirements—in one word, have complete control over their own local affairs. In order to achieve this, CO-OPERATION between the Government and the people and their confidence in each other are necessary. Mere homilies on co-operation and confidence within the walls of this House and outside will not do. They do more harm than good. The people require concrete instances to convince themselves that the Government is in earnest in these matters. The ground is ready. Will the Government rise to the height of the occasion and take advantage of the situation? It is for the Government alone to do it. Co-operation, My Lord, is a plant of slow growth. It requires delicate nursing and does not flourish in an atmosphere of inequalities and suspicion. It does not mean blind subserviency. It is far from espionage. May God grant Your Lordship's Government strength and statesmanship to utilize this splendid opportunity, which will result in the lasting good of the Rulers and the Ruled, that is the prayer of the people committed to Your Excellency's care."

THE HON'BLE MAULVI F. K. FAZ-UL-HAQ said :—

"MY LORD—In offering a few remarks on the budget now before us, I wish I had sufficient time to discuss the allotments in expenditure on the various items of absorbing public interest. I feel, however, that it is impossible to go into details on any subject of real importance in the course of discussions of a discursive character within the compass of 15 fleeting minutes. For economy of time I will not, therefore, go over the ground already covered by the speeches of some of the Hon'ble Members, but will confine my remarks on the subject of education, with special reference to the needs and requirements of the Muhammadan community.

"My Lord, if human memory is short, official memories are very much shorter, and I am not surprised that within the twelve months that have elapsed since the annulment of the Partition, officials have managed to forget their special obligations to the Muhammadan community. Only the other day, the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler seemed to be somewhat impatient of criticism on the subject of Muhammadan education, and he actually complained that Muhammadan leaders are slow to acknowledge the help and assistance which Government has all along given to Muhammadans in the matter of education. If the remark had been made previous to the 12th of December 1911, I would have considered it necessary to attempt a justification of our attitude in agitating for increased privileges, and for a wider recognition of the claims of our community on the resources of the State in educational matters. But I do not think that, after that memorable date, officials can expect that Muhammadans will consent to talk of their grievances with bated breath, or continue to brood over their lot in silent dispair. I would only remind the officials that they are in honour bound to render adequate compensations to the Muhammadan community for all the grievious wrong inflicted on them by the unceremonious annulment of the Partition. My Lord, it seems to me that officials make a very fundamental mistake with regard to the claims of Muhammadans on the Government, whether it be the question of State patronage, grant of political rights or privileges, or expenditure from provincial revenues for promoting Muhammadan education, or other matters of special interest to the community. We are often told that we have got our share, and we should not complain. But those who say so seem to forget that we claim not only our share, but also a substantial excess throughout. Our share we claim as our indefeasible right, and the excess we claim by way of compensation for the wrong done to us by the annulment of the Partition. This is the view of the general Muhammadan public, and if the officials will not meet the demands in full, there is certain to be discontent in the community. Whether the discontent would be worth the consideration of the Government is a difierent question. The situation is no doubt an embarrassing one, but it has been deliberately created by the officials themselves, and they must be prepared to face it bravely.

"My Lord, in the despatch of August 25th the Government of India pledged itself to see that Muhammadan interests would not be affected by the change brought about by the annulment of the Partition. More than eighteen months have elapsed since then, and it is time to see how far the solemn promises have been fulfilled. When His Excellency the Viceroy visited Dacca shortly after the Durbar announcements, every one expected that His Excellency will be able to announce something particularly gratifying to the Muhammadan community. We got the announcement about the Dacca University, but I must confess that it fell far short of our expectations. I do not wish to belittle the importance of the Dacca University as a factor in preventing a set-back in the educational advancement of Eastern Bengal, or the incalculable advantages of a residential University in the centre of that large Muhammadan population. But I wish to protest against the theory that the University is meant to benefit Muhammadans alone, or that it can be regarded as a definite step towards a conciliation of Muhammadan feelings. The Viceroy has distinctly said that the University is, as it should be, for the benefit of Hindus and Muhammadans alike. Its area of operations has been curtailed, out of deference to the apprehensions of the Hindu community lest it would lead to a revival of the effects of the Partition. Even the proposed Muhammadan College and the establishment of a faculty of Islamic studies in connection with the University, cannot be credited to any particular desire to favour the Muhammadan community. For more than half a century, Government has maintained a purely Hindu College at Calcutta, with all its elaborate staff and necessary equipments, and the Muhammadan College at Dacca would only be a very tardy recognition of the long neglected claims of the Muhammadan community. As for the department of Islamic studies, it is only a natural incident in the curriculum of studies of a University in a part of the country where the Muhammadans have long evinced an eager desire for Arabic and Persian learning. It may not be generally known that the Eastern districts contribute an overwhelming majority of the students in the Madrasahs of Bengal, and an University without any provisions for the literary aptitudes and requirements of this class of the population would have been wholly unjustifiable. I hope officials will understand that, although the Muhammadans have voted in favour of the Dacca University, they do not consider it as any particular favour done to them, not even with the special provisions for a Muhammadan College or a faculty of Islamic studies.

"My Lord, not only is the Muhammadan college at Dacca a stern necessity and an act of bare justice to our community, but I maintain that the time has come for the establishment of a first grade college in Arts for the Muhammadans in Calcutta. It may be interesting to Hon'ble Members to know that the question of such a Muhammadan college engaged the attention of Government so early as the year 1871. In a Minute by the then Lieutenant-Governor, Sir George Campbell, dated the 13th April 1871, to a committee appointed to report on the affairs of the Calcutta Madrasah, His Honour asked the Committee to consider whether the Hooghly College was to remain a general college with a Muhammedan school attached, or whether there ought to be a separate Muhammadan college. More than 40 years have since elapsed ; and in the course of this time not only has there been no such college, but even the college classes of the Calcutta Madrasah have been actually abolished for the sake of economy. The Hon'ble Mr. Küchler very triumphantly pointed out the other day that 70 Muhammadan boys are permitted to read in the Presidency College on a fee of Rs. 2 a month. True, but does Mr. Küchler remember that, by abolishing the college classes in the Madrasah. Government was in honour bound to provide instruction for boys who would otherwise have prosecuted their studies at that institution? The present arrangement is not only no favour conferred, but an actual and keenly felt inconvenience to Muhammadan students. There being no Muhammadan hostel in the vicinity of the Presidency College, boarders from the Elliot and Baker Hostels have to trudge along two miles after a hurried breakfast in order to attend lectures at the Presidency College.

Moreover, the restriction on admission imposed by the authorities of the Presidency College is wholly unjust and unfair to the Muhammedan community. When these matters were brought to the notice of the authorities, the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler pointed out in a letter No. 165, dated the 5th October 1910, addressed to the Secretary of the Provincial Muhammedan Educational Conference, that "in view of the general limitation of the numbers that may be admitted to the Presidency College, the limit as far as the Muhammdans are concerned cannot on any account be relaxed." These are no doubt words of authority. But may we also enquire why the College classes of the Madrasah were abolished at all, and boys now either compelled to drag themselves two miles off for instruction which they might have obtained nearer home, or made to run the risk of being turned out under arbitrary rules? On this point I cannot do better than quote a few sentences from a pamphlet entitled "The Mussalmans of Bengal, how they remain uneducated" prepared by the Moslem students of Calcutta themselves, and which deals with the question in a remarkable manner. "The limit of numbers of Moslem students to be admitted into the Presidency College was imposed in 1908, and naturally the authorities thought that a limit which represented 14 more than the average number admitted to Presidency College during the year 1902-07, was liberal enough. But in matters of this character the average of a number of years is likely to be as misleading as the calculation which bases the height of a door on the average height of mankind. It does not provide for the years in which the average is exceeded, and it does not take into account the increase of numbers which is likely to be still greater in future. On the contrary, it takes account of the recent past which, in the case of Muhammadan education, has been notoriously inglorious. If a limit is to be imposed, it must be imposed in the case of communities which practically monopolise the College, rather than in the case of the community which is invariably accused of apathy and ignorance. But even if it be conceded that a limit may be placed on the number of Muhammadan students, it must not be based on an average of past years, but on the maximum, and it should take into account the growing increase in the number of Mussalmans who are successful in the various University Examinations." My Lord, I have not had time to interpellate the Government on the subject, but I learn from private sources that in 1911 more than 200 Muhammadan students were refused admission into various colleges in Calcutta. Have the officials seriously considered the inevitable effects of the bitter disappointments which these refusals cause, not only to the boys, but also to the community as a whole? It is well-known that when English education was first introduced into this country, the Muhammadans held aloof from it because, in the words of Mr. E. C. Bayley "however good in itself, it made no concession to their prejudices and was, in its nature, unavoidably antagonistic to their interests and at variance with their social traditions". The result was that the Muhammadan community, to quote the words of Sir William Hunter "with one consent spurned the instructions of idolators through the medium of idolatory". It is thus evident that if the Muhammadans did not take kindly to English education at the beginning, the fault did not lay with the Muhammadans alone. But now that the initial prejudices have been removed, and Muhammadans are coming forward in increasing numbers to avail themselves of English education, artificial restrictions are being imposed which will inevitably have the effect of putting a brake on Muhammadan educational progress.

"My Lord, the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler treated us the other day to a lengthy homily on what the Government has hitherto done to promote Muhammadan education. For all that has been actually done, we are truly thankful, but I hope the Hon'ble Member will excuse us if we decline to be grateful for mere promises. He has referred us to Sir Harcourt Butler's speech at Delhi, and is happy to announce that the Government of India is about to address the Local Governments on the subject of Muhammadan education. We are glad to hear it, but we prefer to wait and see what is actually going to be done. The Government of India has been going on addressing Local Governments on this subject ever since the famous education despatch of 1854, and if elaborate schemes and pious wishes expressed eloquently in Government Resolutions, could be accepted in lieu of actual fulfilments, the Muhammadan community would have every reason to congratulate themselves on the zeal and earnestness displayed by officials in promoting the cause of Muhammadan education. But unfortunately, the net result of all this official activity for the past sixty years comes to this, that in this year of grace 1913, there are more than 350 Muhammadan students who are living in gutters and bye-places of this city for want of the most ordinary hostel accommodation, while hundreds of Mnhammadans boys have to give up their studies every year on being refused admission into the existing colleges in Calcutta. We have had enough of these resolutions, these well-meant promises and unredeemed pledges which bode no more good for the Muhammadan community than did the 'settled fact' of the Partition. The statement of the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr in Council the other day is somewhat hopeful, as it refers to matters which can be called somewhat definite. But unfortunately, even the provisions to which the Hon'ble Member referred, valuable as they are, are far from being adequate. The extension of the Baker and Elliot Hostels will hardly meet even the present demand, while the mufassil schemes appear to be grossly inadequate and insufficient. The condition for reservation of a fifth of the seats for Muhammadans in hostels attached to aided colleges is a salutary provision of the Provincial grant, but even this will not take us very far. In a couple of years the rush for accommodation will bring things to nearly the same pass as at present, and there will practically be a deadlock in progress unless fresh provisions are made again on a liberal scale.

"My Lord, I have already urged the case for the establishment of a Muhammadan College in Calcutta; an equally urgent case is the one for the establishment of a hostel in College Square. That there is an urgent need for increased hostel accommodation for Muhammadan students is universally accepted, and the only question is in what shape this need should be provided for. I have already said that the extension of the Baker and Elliot Hostels would not meet the full demand. But even if the extended buildings could provide accommodation for all Muhammadan students they would be practically unsuited, as a place of residence, for the majority of Law and Science students. I hope the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler has by this time found out that the Baker and Elliot Hostels are not situated in College Square, but just two miles away. Need I pause to explain the physical inconveniences of boarders in these hostels when compelled to attend lectures at the Presidency College or the University Law College, or when required to attend any functions at the University Institute? This latter excellent Institution has hitherto been out of practical use by Muhammadan students. All these drawbacks could be easily removed by a suitable Muhammadan hostel in College Square. I recognize the advisability of locating Muhammadan hostels in the midst of the acknowledged Muhammadan quarters in Calcutta. But the principal educational institutions in the city are situated miles away from the Muhammadan quarters, because when these institutions were established, nobody took any note of the Muhammadan community, owing to their apathy to English education. It would be impossible, nor would it be advisable, to build a second Presidency College in the neighbourhood of Wellesley Square. Muhammadan students will have to go to the present Presidency College, unless they are to deprive themselves of the benefits of instructions at one of the best and most well-equipped educational institutions in the world. The same argument applies to the University Law College and also to the University Institute. I feel sure that the case for a Muhammadan hostel in College Square need only be formulated to be accepted, for it only turns on the question whether you will permanently shut out the Muhammadan community from Educational Institutions on which enormous sums are spent from Provincial Revenues every year.

"My Lord, I regret that I have not got sufficient time at my disposal to discuss the statements made by the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler the other day regarding Muhammadan education. It is a remarkable instance of the self-glorification in which Indian officials too often indulge in order to impress the public with their activities in the performance of their duties. Beyond a few thousand rupees spent on Muktabs and middle Madrasahs, and on the training of Muhammadan teachers, together with a few conferences for the improvement of the Madrasahs, leading to no practical result, I do not think anything definite has been pointed out as having been accomplished in furtherance of the cause of Muhammadan education. To take one single instance out of many; even now the provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian in Government and aided schools is hopelessly inadequate. Mr. Küchler says that no provision is made where there is no demand. But how can there be a demand unless boys come forward to read these languages, and why again should they do so, unless there is a provision for the teaching of these languages in the schools. I would ask the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler to consider if his argument does not involve a well-known logical fallacy. As a matter of fact, the absence of provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian either scares away Muhammadan boys from the schools, or compels them to take up Sanskrit. It is no use arguing that our vernacular is Bengali and we find Sanskrit more congenial and easy to master than Persian or Arabic. Our natural inclinations are towards Persian, if not Arabic, and not towards Sanskrit. I speak from experience that the grievance is a very real one and keenly felt, but whether Government is prepared to help us or not is a different matter.

"I wish to take this opportunity of commenting on a mistake which officials generally commit in calculating the share of the Muhammadan community in allotments in the matter of education. It is argued that the true basis of calculation is not the numerical strength of our community, but the very small fraction of it that attend educational institutions. I protest against this method of dwarfing Muhammadan claims, both because it is unjust and unfair. If Muhammadan boys are in such a minority in educational institutions it is due to a system of education which has been utterly unsuited to the requirements of the community, and which the authorities themselves permitted to continue in the face of protests. And now to make this minority a basis for the calculation of educational grants is to penalise the Muhammadan community for a state of things for which the officials themselves have been primarily responsible and which has been brought about by causes over which the Muhammadan have had no control.

"My Lord, I do not wish to detain the Council any longer. To me it seems that Government has arrived at a parting of the ways, and has got to decide, once for all, its future policy regarding questions affecting the Muhammadan community. It may be that Government may regard the twenty-two millions of the Muhammadans of this Presidency as not worth the consideration that is due to them, on the ground that they have not hitherto shown themselves capable of organized agitation. Or it may be, that the sense of justice which forms so distinguishable a feature of British character, will induce our Rulers to redress our grievances as soon as brought to their notice. As to what the ultimate decision of the Government will be, is a matter with which I have no concern. But if the system of popular representation in Council is a reality, and our opinion is entitled to any weight, I can assure the Government that the minds of the Muhammadans are now in a disturbed state. There is a very strong and widespread feeling that, in spite of their loyalty and devotion, the Muhammadans have fallen on the frosty side of official pleasure, and that somehow or other, Muhammadan interests are not receiving proper attention. Let the officials judge for themselves whether recent events have not contributed to the existence of these feelings in the minds of the Muhammadan community. But so far as we are concerned, our policy is perfectly clear. We will no longer be satisfied with pious wishes expressed eloquently in Government Resolutions. For the present we, in Calcutta, are very particularly keen about a Muhammadan College and a hostel in College Square. We will not consent to see the removal of our grievances in these two vital matters to be deferred, on the score of expense or any other considerations whatsoever. And generally we demand that all other considerations should be subordinated to the necessity of affording the fullest relief to Muhammadans in the matter of education. This will be some compensation for all that we have patiently and loyally borne, even under the greatest provocations which human nature can bear. Hitherto, Muhammadans have so completely confided in the sense of justice of officials in all cases, that now it almost does violence to their feelings to be compelled to adopt the more modern and effective method of popular agitation. But in spite of their aversion to agitation, Muhammadans are drifting, owing to sheer force of circumstances, into the arena of political warfare. We feel that we have got to move with the times or else we are doomed. Let not the officials think that the feelings of the entire community can be soothed simply by the bestowal of titles and decorations on our leaders, or by providing for a transitory stay of the officials at Dacca with all the paraphernalia of Government. We require something more than a mere concession to our sentiments, something tangible which can be reasonably set off against our loss by the annulment of the Partition. I sincerely hope that officials will not be mislead by the misrepresentations of interested persons, but will bravely meet the situation in the face and, by a liberal attempt to meet our demands to the full, prevent a feeling of disaffection and despair from creeping into the minds of the loyal Muhammadans of India."

THE HON'BLE BABU PRASANNA KUMAR RAY, said :—

"MY LORD—I congratulate the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Portfolio of Finance, on the very prosperous and lucid statement he has been able to present to the Council, as well as on the fair distribution made on the different heads of expenditure. With Your Lordship's permission, I beg to make only a few observations and those are on Education and Sanitation—the two principal factors for making a healthy, wise and useful nation of the people placed under the care of a benign and enlightened Government.

"My Lord, we are grateful to the Imperial Government for the large grant they have made for expenditure on education in Bengal. It is gratifying to note that keen interest is being taken by Your Excellency's Government in the matter of education, its spread and improvement in all useful branches of Arts and Science. The enhanced allotment of Rs. 1,34,88,000 evinces the earnestness of Government in this direction, though the vastness of the educational demands of this country requires more expenditure on this head. It is true that much has been done in this respect, but much still remains to be done. It appears that the budget includes a lump provision of Rs. 9,25,000 for improving popular education in Bengal. I beg to point out that in a country which is pre-eminently agricultural, in order to give the cultivating classes, whose main source and mainstay is agriculture, the full benefits of the educational facilities provided by an enlightened Government, it is of the utmost importance that a compulsory course of practical training in agriculture should be included in the curriculum of studies of the primary schools. The acquirement of such a training would enable the agriculturists to introduce the improved method of cultivation, to increase the produce of their lands, and to become thus a better class of farmers contributing to the general posperity of the country.

"As regards sanitation and water-supply, the interest which your Excellency's Government has taken in this direction has evoked a deep sense of gratitude in the hearts of the people. The Government has very liberally allowed the District Board's appropriation of the entire revenue derivable from the Public Works Cesses—the substantial portion of which is intended for improving the sanitation and supply of good drinking water in urban areas. As the represntative of the District Boards of the Chittagong Division, I beg, My Lord, to express on behalf of my constituencies our deep sense of gratitude for this munificent grant ; and I hope and trust that, with the augmented resources at their disposal, the District Boards will be in a position to do substantial works in the matter of water-supply and sanitation. A sum of Rs. 38,000 is provided in the budget for appointment of overseers, who might be employed in each subdivision in Bengal to report on the real condition of rural water-supply. I may be allowed to point out that this may not be needed as the work, it is considered, can be best done by the overseers employed by the District Boards. The allotment under this head may be better utilized for other important items of sanitary improvements, such as extension of the medical relief, which is also a crying need in many parts in Bengal. In this connection, I fully concur with my colleague Hon'ble Rai Hari Mohan Chandra Bahadur, and echo his saying that :—

> 'There are parts of the country where not a dose of quinine can be had either for love or money, in spite of the systematic measures adopted by Government for the supply of pice-packets of the drug through the agency of post offices. The luxury of fully equipped dispensaries in masonry buildings (or houses of costly plans) should for the present be abandoned. Poor villagers would be equally grateful with less ambitous but equally useful institutions in the shape of small dispensaries in sheds of corrugated iron roof and mat ceiling, with medicines for the prevailing diseases. This would meet a real want and serve to mitigate suffering to an appreciable extent.'

"I would do not feel myself justified if mention is not made here of the improvement of the condition of water-supply in the Chittagong Municipality. The people of Chittagong have already represented the matter to Your Excellency. and it is not known how the question stands at present. I however beg leave to state that the establishment of a water-works in Chittagong is not wanted as a luxury, but as a real need of the town. At present the dearth of good drinking water in the municipal area is solely responsible for the unusual mortality, which occurs every year in the summer, by the outbreak of cholera and small-pox. As soon as the summer sets in, the few good ponds and springs which are in the town begin to dry up, and the people are compelled to use foul water. It is, therefore, hoped, that our benign Government will be pleased to find their way to provide the Chittagong town, at an early date, with water-works which will be considered as a boon both by the rich and the poor.

"Before I finish I crave leave, My Lord, to ask that the District Boards may be given extended powers in the disposal of grants made to them by Government. The manner in which these grants are assigned at present often compels the Boards to limit their discretion ; and it not unfrequently happens that, to avoid the lapse of grants the resources are spent on projects which, in consideration of the local circumstances, could be safely deferred, while on the other hand, the works of real pressing demands suffer only for the reason that no specification thereof has been made in the grant. My Lord, I hope and trust there may be no danger in allowing to the District Boards, under proper safeguard, a greater scope and freedom in regard to the allotment of the funds placed at their disposal."

THE HON'BLE UPENDRA LAL RAY said—

"My Lord, I am glad to observe that the year under review promises to be one of prosperity and the improvements contemplated, if carried out, will go a great way towards ameliorating the condition of the people of this Presidency.

"The scheme of the regrading of Munsifs, for which a sum of Rs. 50,000 has been budgeted will. I hope, be given effect to, and thereby some relief given to these overworked members of the public service, and justice demands that they should be placed on an equal footing with the members of the Provincial Executive Service. I fully endorse the views of the Hon'ble Dr. Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari about the grading of Sub-Deputy Collectors.

"One salient feature of the budget is the increased expenditure allotted for the reorganization of the Subordinate Police Service in the Eastern Bengal districts. My Lord, as an inhabitant of Eastern Bengal, I welcome this increased grant and wish to offer a few suggestions on this important subject. Dacoities in Eastern Bengal have, of late, been very frequent ; and intersected as they are with a network of big rivers and canals, the villages of Eastern districts afford better opportunities to gangs of dacoits for carrying on their nefarious and diabolical pursuits. Under the head of Reorganization of Subordinate Police in Eastern Bengal, a sum of Rs. 2,92,014 has been assigned and, similarly, a sum of Rs. 4,49,335 has been provided for reorganization of River Police, Dacca. In addition to this, a sum of Rs. 45,000 has been set apart for the station boat scheme in the districts of Faridpur, Dacca, Tippera, Mymensingh and Barisal. There is no gainsaying the fact that Police arrangements are not what they should be, and more effective and active vigilance on their part is an urgent necessity, and steps should be taken to ensure such vigilance. Dacoities in Eastern Bengal have, almost in every case, been committed in the houses of the well-to-do yet helpless traders, and it is a matter for regret that in most of the cases the offenders have not been detected and brought to justice. In the interests of peace and for security of life and property, it is absolutely necessary that early action should be taken to prevent a recurrence of dacoities in the country. It is a conspicuous feature of British Administration that the subjects can sleep in the open, with their treasures under their pillows, but, in the province of Bengal at least, this appears to be a thing of the past. Yet another dacoity has been reported in to-day's paper, committed in the house of a merchant at Gopalpur in the subdivision of Madaripur in the Faridpur district. I fervently hope that the improvements proposed will have the desired effect, but at the same time I beg humbly to suggest that steps should be taken so that the conduct of the additional police force towards the people of the neighbourhood may be absolutely beyond reproach.

"My Lord, I offer my most sincere thanks to the Government of India for the increased assignments for education and sanitation. I cannot conceive of any better purposes to which public money may be applied. In the obligatory scheme I notice, with pleasure, the allotment of Rs. 10,600 for the provincialization of the Victoria Technical Institute, Chittagong, and the Diamond Jubilee Industrial School. The former scheme has been hanging on for years, and I hope it will be taken in hand and carried out during the year under review.

"I welcome the proposal of amalgamating the Excise Department with the Salt Department. For myself, I confess I have not been able to understand the object of continuing the latter department. Chittagong has a Superintendent of Salt with a staff of officers under him. As a dealer in this commodity, I have never realized the necessity of maintaining the salt branch, nor have I seen what practical work is entrusted to or done by it. Whatever that may be, I notice with delight the proposal for amalgamation, which is now before the Government of India for consideration, but I regret I have not been able to understand how the proposed amalgamation can involve an increase of expenditure amounting to the sum of Rs. 2,66,808 over the present sanctioned scale. If retrenchment is the object of amalgamation, and I don't think it can be anything else, what do we gain if, in consequence, we have to incur additional heavy charges.

"Turning to sanitation for which a non-recurring grant of Rs. 20,00,000 has been so liberally made by the Government of India, we are often confronted with a charge that the money allotted year after year cannot be applied to its legitimate purpose, inasmuch as the mufassil Municipalities and District Boards do not come forward with detailed schemes. I do not say that the charge is absolutely unfounded, but at the same time I wish to point out that the relation of the Local Government to the several self-governing public bodies is like that of the General Manager of a Mercantile firm to its assistants in charge of the different departments, or, in other words, like that of the senior member of a joint Hindu family to the junior ones :—the duty of the former to the latter, in each case, being not merely to supervise and control, but to advise and assist and in many cases actively to co-operate in their work. It is much to be regretted that the bulk of the population of this country is entirely ignorant of the rules and requirements of sanitation, and attempts to improve the same are sometimes baffled by local apathy and often by actual opposition. Assistance of Government is what is necessary in such cases, and I venture to hope that where such necessity is felt and recognized, Government will lend its helping hand to the local bodies concerned, in the preparation and execution of cut and dried schemes of sanitation."

THE HON'BLE MAHARAJA JAGADINDRA NATH RAY said :—

"My Lord, for unavoidable reasons I had to be absent on the 2nd of April when the Council met principally for the discussion of the budget. Many of the points on which I wanted to speak, have been very ably discussed by the Hon'ble Members of this Council, and after that I do not wish to tire out the patience of this Council by inflicting a long speech on it. Resolutions moved by the non-official members of the Council, regarding the recurring and non-recurring grants by the Government of India, are often treated with very little sympathy by the official members, and that has been one of our grievances. If we calmly think about the situation we can hardly blame them for this apparent want of sympathy towards our need. Government of India grants are mostly ear-marked, and the Local Government has very little or no option in the expenditure of the same. I should, therefore, submit to your Lordship that attempts should be made to free ourselves from those restrictions; so that the Local Government can use its discretion regarding the allotments of the Imperial grants.

"My Lord, a few observations with regard to education and sanitation and I have finished.

"Education :—I am glad to notice that fair allotments have been made for the Universities of this province. It is admitted on all hands that the spread of high education in the desired direction will be our future salvation. In order to prepare the recipient for such education, My Lord, a good grounding in a competent school is absolutely necessary. In the absence of any such school in our country, many young boys have, up-to-now, been sent to England to receive English education from the very start. But I regret, My Lord, that the results have not been uniformly satisfactory, and it is no wonder. Being away from home influences and from all sorts of traditions of the family, and being exposed to the fearful temptations of a vast city, young heads are apt to turn. Therefore, My Lord, the want of a school in a healthy locality, possessing up-to-date equipments and manned by English teachers and professors, has long been felt by a very large section of our community. As a matter of fact, Your Lordship has been memorialized by certain gentlemen of wealth, influence, rank and culture a short time ago, and I should like to draw the attention of your Lordship's Government to this crying need of ours.

"Sanitation :—Sanitation needs no advocacy, My Lord. The people and the Government equally know its importance, and when the other day my Hon'ble friend Babu Surendra Nath Ray moved a resolution asking for a certain sum of money for the improvement of drinking water, most enthusiastically I voted for the resolution, without stopping to think whether such grant of money was possible or not. No one can blame me for that, because I come from a notoriously unhealthy place, and therefore whatever is suggested for the improvement of sanitation has my deep sympathy and wholehearted support. Unfortunately that resolution was lost. Resolutions might come and go but the need is there, My Lord, and Your Lordship knows that the need is real, and knowing that, just a year ago, when assuming the Government of our province, Your Lordship was kind enough to assure us that Your Excellency's Government will try to "combat malaria" together with other works of usefulness and uplifting. We have therefore, full confidence that sanitation will receive the entire attention of your Lordship's Government.

"These are the few observations My Lord, with which I commend this budget to the Hon'ble Members. It is the first budget under your Lordship's auspices, and it being a prosperity budget it is specially interesting to all of us. The King-Emperor's visit to India last year was an unique occasion and unprecedented in the annals of British India. So many changes and alterations in the administration of the country were inaugurated by His Gracious Majesty and we have every hope, My Lord, that, under the altered conditions Bengal will continue to prosper year after year and make wholesome progress in every direction under Your Lordship's wise, benevolent and sympathetic Government."

The Hon'ble RAI RADHA CHARAN PAL BAHADUR said :—

"My Lord, owing to another subject being brought before the Council I could not be ready and I could not prepare notes of any speech that I intended to deliver on this occasion. I would therefore crave your Lordship's indulgence to make a few observations on matters connected with Calcutta. In the first place, I should like to state that the revised estimates for the year which has just close l show steady improvement in all directions. The estimates for the current year indicate an earnest and persistent desire on the part of Government to improve the conditions of the people, to make them healthy, happy and contented. Resolutions we might move, resolutions we might support, resolutions we might combine to vote solid for a popular cause, or, in Parliamentary parlance, we might combine to overthrow the party in power, but we freely, frankly and gratefully recognize the material progress our motherland has made under the British Raj. Nevertheless, my Lord, the cry is perpetually for further progress, the cry is insistent for more privileges, for greater emoluments, for the loaves and fishes of the State in this country. I believe, my Lord, that the cry will be perpetual so long as the progressive policy of the British Raj will last, and, I trust, that it will not be misconstrued into one of disloyalty or disaffection against the Raj.

"One of the matters on which I wanted to speak is the police administration of Calcutta. My Lord, I know that whenever any of us open our lips on the subject of the police it is generally taken to be one of unmitigated censure of the police and police officers. In the first place, although I do not here rise to worship at the temple of the police, at the same time I may say that since the reforms recommended by the Police Commission were adopted by Government the police administration has largely improved ; but, my Lord, I must state that the lower ranks of the police have not improved to any appreciable extent. My hon'ble friend, Dr. Deba Prosad Sarbadhikari, in his speech referred to one of the weakest links of the police in Calcutta. Living in Calcutta, having been born in Calcutta, and having associated with my countrymen in every hour of my life in Calcutta, I recognize this fact that the subordinate staff of the Calcutta Police is not up to the mark. Head-constables who are the principal investigating officers draw salaries from Rs. 15 to Rs. 25 per mensem. As I have said, I come into contact with a large section of my countrymen every day, and the complaint is perpetual that no satisfactory result in many cases can be obtained from the investigations made by these officers. I do not make a sweeping condemnation of these officers, my Lord, but, generally speaking, there is that impression, and from the personal knowledge of the opinion of my countrymen, I say that the impression is that they do not get a satisfactory result from these officers, and what is the cause? The head-constables in whose hands are the investigations of all the principal cases, so far as the people of Calcutta are concerned, are in receipt of a salary of from Rs. 15 to Rs. 25 per mensem. I do not think, my Lord, that the class of men recruited on that pay can be ordinarily called, in the words of the Police Commission, 'trustworthy or reliable men.' I think that this subject requires the earnest consideration of your Excellency's Government. I think respectable and educated middle class men ought to be attracted to these posts, and the pay of the posts ought to begin with a minimum salary of Rs. 30 or Rs. 40 per mensem. Then, my Lord, I find that the Government have been pleased to post Deputy Commissioners in different areas in the town. I welcome this improvement in the police administration of Calcutta, but it is not merely the appointment of Deputy Commissioners that will lead to further improvement in the police. The head of the police must be thoroughly familiar with the wants and wishes of the better class of people. I remember the day, my Lord, when I was a mere boy, and although I was a mere boy I could say this from personal knowledge, that when the Chairman of the Corporation was the Commissioner of Police—that was since Mr. Schalch's time to the time of Sir Henry Harrison—the Indian community in Calcutta was in daily touch with the police administration of the city. I remember in the days of the Justices—the Justices numbered nearly 125, both European and Indian in Calcutta—the leaders of my community came in daily contact with the Chairman of the Corporation who was the Commissioner of Police, and they used to communicate to him any shortcoming or defect or any maladministration which prevailed in any thana, and no sooner did the Chairman-Commissioner hear it than he used to take a slip of paper and send it to Sir John Lambert for enquiry and investigation, and in this way the head of the police was constantly in touch with the leaders of the people of Calcutta. I do not mean to say that the present Commissioner of Police is not familiar with the leaders of the people. He is, but he does not come in the way of every native gentleman as the native gentleman does not always like to intrude upon the valuable time of a high officer of Government who is always engrossed in his duties, because he may be informed. Fursut nahin hai. I have no personal knowledge of any rebuff from any high officer, but this is the feeling which prevents respectable leaders of my community from intruding on the valuable time of those officers. I think in the interests of the public there should be more intermingling and free intermingling with the high officers of Government as in days gone by when there was no Reformed Council or Executive Council of Government, but still there were native gentlemen who enjoyed the highest confidence of Government and who very largely shaped the policy of Government and their advice was much more listened to than is the case even in this progressive age. But I hope those days will return with the gracious visit of His Majesty the King-Emperor and that the present state of affairs will pass away and there will be more free and unreserved intercourse between the rulers and the ruled.

"Then, my Lord, I have incidentally drawn in my interpellations the attention of Government to the deplorable condition of the Police Court in Calcutta, and the attention of the Government has also been drawn to the deplorable condition of the building. No more ill-lighted, ill-ventilated and insanitary building exists in Calcutta, and I wonder why the Health Officer of the city who is so active in condemning insanitary and uninhabitable buildings does not condemn this building. It has been said by some of the best doctors of the city who have been Honorary Magistrates of that Court that if they worked there for days together continuously they were bound to have their health undermined; such is the deplorable condition of that building. My Lord, I am grateful to say that the attention of Government has been drawn to this and that your Excellency has paid a visit to this building, but every day's delay adds to our sufferings and therefore I earnestly hope and pray that something may be done within a very short time to give sufficient accommodation to the Courts in well-ventilated buildings. It is proposed to transfer them to Charnock Place. I hope the arrangement will be made as soon as possible.

"Then, my Lord, I come to the Small Cause Court of Calcutta. I believe in this Council, either in this meeting or in any one of its last meetings, the Hon'ble Dr. Deba Prosad Sarbadhikari dwelt on the misery of suitors in Court. It has been my experience and the experience of my countrymen that in the Small Cause Court it is difficult to get a process served or a suit expedited without going through diverse ways and means which are certainly unworthy of being adopted by honourable gentlemen. I have spoken on the subject to our esteemed friend, the able Judge of the Small Cause Court. My Lord, I speak from personal experience.

"Then, my Lord, there is no doubt that additional judges are required, but I think that if, as in Madras, I understand, is the practice, honorary benches are instituted here, it will give much relief to the stipendiary judges in the Small Cause Court. The petty cases involving small sums of money can very well be disposed of by honorary judges selected from among the merchants, traders and landholders of the city. I think this matter deserves the consideration of your Excellency's Government.

"Then, my Lord, there is another matter which also vitally concerns Calcutta—the question of a park in the northern part of the town. My Lord, the Calcutta Corporation had, in the past, when Sir Edward Baker was Lieutenant-Governor, approached the Government on the subject. My Lord, a large quantity of land belongs to Government, and Government is the owner of khas mahal property in that area. The Corporation have acquired a considerable quantity of land there, in hopes of getting a large quantity of, Government khas mahal land for purposes of a park. I think, my Lord knowing well the sympathy of your Excellency's Government with the people of Calcutta, especially the student community, this matter would receive your Excellency's kind and sympathetic consideration."

The Hon'ble MR. KÜCHLER said :—

"My Lord, criticism of the Education budget has been to a large extent disarmed on the present occasion by the liberality of the allotments which have been made to this branch of the administration. It is true that the absence of detailed proposals for the expenditure of the new Imperial grants has deprived possible critics of a considerable amount of material, but the real explanation of the comparatively non-contentious nature, except with one notable exception, of the remarks offered by Hon'ble Members is to be found in the fact that the dominant note at present is one of satisfaction that the progress of education is not likely in the future to be hampered for want of funds. On previous occasions in Council, when our purse-strings had unfortunately to be tightened, it has been my duty to defend the adequacy of the provisions made in the budget for items of educational expenditure in which certain Members took a special interest and which they accordingly felt called upon to press on the attention of Government. I do not say that this task has been an entirely uncongenial one, but on the whole it is pleasanter to sail in waters untroubled by any serious differences of opinion and to be able to use the language of hope rather than that of discouragement. Not that the voice of criticism has been entirely hushed. It has still made itself heard in a good many directions, but it has, in view of possible benefits, been so largely moderated that Hon'ble Members who have called attention to individual points will probably be satisfied with the brief explanations which I propose to offer. I must, however, premise that in accordance with standing orders it will be necessary to confine myself to a discussion of such matters as arise immediately out of the budget.

"I should say in the first place that I agree with the Hon'ble Babu Mahendra Nath Ray in his objection to the inclusion in the budget of large allotments in the form of lump provisions. Unfortunately, schemes, especially those of a recurring nature, take a long time to prepare, and it is therefore often impossible to show the proposed expenditure under the separate appropriate heads of the budget, but as I indicated in my opening statement the other day, every effort will be made to introduce a more ordered arrangement in this respect as soon as possible.

"The Hon'ble Dr. Sarkar has also been somewhat puzzled by one of the items in the budget, viz., that in which a saving of Rs. 3,78,500 has been shown in the expenditure, but this is really a very simple matter. It is obvious that when we have got to deal with a very large expenditure to the extent of 132 lakhs or more, it would be impossible to spend the whole of that amount in the coming year, and it is therefore perfectly sound finance to allow for a certain amount of savings. In the case of ordinary savings, that is to say, the sum that is represented as the ordinary savings, this would generally lapse. But I can remove one of the apprehensions expressed by the Hon'ble Dr. Sarkar, and that is with regard to the danger of lapse in the case of those grants which have been made by the Imperial Government. These grants are absolutely earmarked, and even if they are not spent in one year, they will simply be carried forward to the next year, so that there is no danger whatever of the money lapsing, or in other words there is no danger, as the Hon'ble Dr. Sarkar apprehends, of the Government of India withdrawing this money in any future year, if they think they wanted it for their own needs.

"In the same way, the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji has also raised a point in this connection and has taken exception to the fact that the revised estimates are in some cases also given in the form of lump provision, but this is inevitable; once an item appears in the form of a lump provision, it must be carried through the budget in that form. It would introduce unutterable confusion if in the original estimate you had a sum put down as a lump provision, and if afterwards, in the revised estimate, this would appear amongst the various heads in the budget. Therefore I think that the Hon'ble Member will admit that there is some reason for the form of lump provisions being continued even in regard to the revised estimate. Of course, as regards information as to how the money is being spent, that will always be forthcoming if Hon'ble Members require it.

"With regard to individual criticisms I take first the service grievance put forward by the Hon'ble Dr. Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari. Since the last discussion of the Financial Statement in Council it has been announced by the Government of India that special allowances of Rs. 150 a month have been granted to five selected members of the Provincial Educational Service. The Hon'ble Member, in his resolution on the subject, had suggested 10 allowances of Rs. 200, but he now asks for a great deal more, and has put forward an elaborate scheme for giving an allowance of 25 per cent. of his salary to every officer in the service. It is very unlikely, however, that Government will consider a scheme on this scale of magnitude pending the recommendations of the Public Service Commission, nor does relief of such a liberal character appear to be called for, that is to say, pending, of course, the recommendations of the Public Service Commission. We do not know what will emerge from the discussions of the Public Service Commission. It is always possible that its proposals will be as liberal as those which have been put forward by the Hon'ble Member on the present occasion. At the same time, it would be quite impossible for Government to give temporary relief to the extent which the Hon'ble Member has indicated. On the other hand, there are probably several cases in addition to those of the five officers already referred to, where special hardship has been caused by the postponement of the consideration of a general scheme of improvement of the Provincial Educational Service owing to the appointment of the Commission, and the Government of India has suggested that such cases might be dealt with by the local Governments themselves, in virtue of the increased powers which have recently been delegated to them in this respect. I need hardly say that the Local Government will give careful consideration to this suggestion, but each case will naturally have to be dealt with on its own merits. I may add that there is no proposal to give a general allowance to members of the Indian Educational Service, as has been suggested by the Hon'ble Member, nor has any scheme for the reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service yet been framed, though it is probable that the conditions of this service also will shortly come under review.

"As regards University education, a good many allusions have been made to the scheme for a new University at Dacca, but I am afraid I am not permitted to make any remarks on this subject to-day. In the first place, the report of the Dacca University Committee affords material of such an extensive nature for controversy, that to discuss it at all profitably would require a full day's debate, entirely for itself, and in any case, with the very limited time (a quarter of an hour) at my disposal, it is quite clear that I cannot possibly do justice to the subject. Again, it does not seem to be very intimately connected with the present budget. It is true that potential provisions for the Dacca University are no doubt lurking in some of the Imperial grants, but you cannot possibly have a real provision made in the budget for a scheme which has not received the consideration of the Local Government, which has not received the approval of the Imperial Government and which has certainly not received the sanction of the Secretary of State. For these reasons, I am afraid, interesting and fascinating though the subject may be, I must resist the temptations to reply to some of the criticisms which have been made to-day.

"With the plea for liberal grants to the Calcutta University which has been advanced by the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray, I have already, on a previous occasion, expressed my full sympathy, but I would call attention to one point that is liable to be overlooked in connection with such grants, and that is that grants made by Government to individual colleges are really made to the University, though they do not appear directly as University grants. This is a point which will have especially to be borne in mind when comparisons are instituted between Government benevolence to the Calcutta and Dacca Universities, respectively. We must take into account not only grants which are primarily made to the University, but also grants made to the colleges which form a constituent part of the University.

"Under the head of secondary education reference has been made to the general inadequacy of the grants for aided schools and also the poorness of the pay of teachers. I already touched on these matters in the previous discussions on the financial statement for education, and I then pointed out that, with the help of Government of India grants, it would be possible to make more liberal provision under these heads in future. With reference to the individual case of the building for Jalpaiguri Zilla School, which the Hon'ble Rai Hari Mohan Chandra Bahadur has mentioned, I can assure the Hon'ble Member that the work of construction will be pushed on as rapidly as possible, and that the building will be one worthy of a zilla school. The sum of Rs. 22,600 merely represents a part of the cost.

"Primary education has hardly been referred to, at least so far as the budget is concerned, except by way of approval of the measures which it is proposed to take to secure its improvement. The Hon'ble Maharaja of Nashipur has, it is true, adverted to one or two questions of general interest connected with this subject; but they have no connexion with the budget, and I am therefore precluded from discussing them.

"The Hon'ble Maharaja has also touched on the question of female education in his plea for an extension of the system of zenana education. I fully agree with him in this matter; and in my opening statement with regard to the educational budget, I intimated that it is proposed to appoint a special assistant inspectress for zenana education in West Bengal. Moreover, out of the Imperial grant of Rs. 1,07,000 for female education, a certain sum has been set apart for instruction in zenanas, and probably with the help of the additional funds now about to be placed at our disposal by the Government of India, it will be possible to make still further progress in this direction. The only other allusions to female education are those contained in the remarks of the Hon'ble Rai Nalinaksha Basu Bahadur, but I am unable to follow his meaning when he says that he cannot find any allotment under this head for any part of West Bengal except Calcutta. I think he must be referring to the special allotment made for the extension of the training school for mistresses in Calcutta and has overlooked the general appropriation which I have already indicated will be made from the lump grant of Rs. 1,07,000, as well as the ordinary provisions for female education to be found in the budget. I can assure the Hon'ble Member that the claims of the mufassal have been given equal consideration with those of Calcutta in allotting the funds available under this head. The Hon'ble Member has also revived the old scare as to the undue increase of the inspecting agency. But though such a suggestion may have possessed a certain plausibility in the case of boys' schools, it is entirely devoid of justification where female education is concerned. The inadequacy of the present female inspecting agency has long stood in the way of progress, both in the multiplication and the improvement of our girls' schools, and the small addition now proposed will only go a short way to set matters right.

"The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji has referred in terms almost approaching indignation to the very small allotment which has been made for technical and industrial education, viz., Rs. 72,000, and he has quoted this as in a way affording evidence of the neglect on the part of the Government of the very valuable report which has been written by the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming on technical education; but I can assure the Hon'ble Member that this is far from being the case. Government is fully alive to the value of Mr. Cumming's exhaustive report; and the recommendations that are contained therein are continually being borne in mind in the efforts that are being made to extend the sphere of technical education. I think that the Hon'ble Member's reference has been partly due to a misconception. The allotment of Rs. 72,000, to which he refers, really represents the cost only of one or two of the provincial institutions for technical education. They are the Serampore Weaving Institute and the three provincial institutions in East Bengal.

"I may mention here in the first place that the policy of provincialising technical institutions is being steadily carried out by Government and that, at no very distant date, we hope that a very large number of technical institutes throughout the whole province will be brought under provincial management; but the point to which I should specially call attention is that this sum of Rs. 72,000 represents only a very small part of the sum that is being spent on technical or rather industrial education. I take it of course that the Hon'ble Member was referring merely to technical and industrial schools. Most of these institutions are, as I pointed out, aided institutes, or are under Board management, and as far as aid is concerned, the necessary allotment would not be shown under this head, but would be shown under grant-in-aid allotments. The grant-in-aid allotment is only given in the Financial Statement in the form of a lump sum, though, of course, in our detailed budget all details are fully given. In addition to this, there are one or two technical institutes which are also provincial and which are not covered by this allotment. There is, for instance, the Government School of Art, which is essentially a technical institute, and I may be permitted to include the Commercial Institute also. Over and above that, if the Hon'ble Member had looked at the item immediately above that to which he has called attention, he would have seen that there is an allotment of Rs. 1,21,000 for engineering and survey schools, and, of course, these all come under the head of technical schools. I think perhaps that the Hon'ble Member after this explanation on my part will be prepared to admit that Government is not unmindful of the claims of technical education, and is doing everything in its power to secure its legitimate advancement.

"The only other subject to which attention has been called is that of Muhammadan education. I need not go over the ground which was fully covered in the discussion on the resolution on the subject on the previous occasion in Council; but I am sorry to say that on the present occasion a somewhat violent attack has been delivered by one Hon'ble Member (Maulvi A. K. Faz-ul-Haq) on the methods of my department and on the policy of Government with regard to Muhammadan education. I think that the speech of this Hon'ble Member illustrates the difficulty which we feel in getting to what is really the bottom of the demands of a certain section of the Muhammadan community. I do not however accept that the Hon'ble Member really voices the opinion of the Muhammadan community as a whole. The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, who can speak with very great authority on this subject, told us on a previous occasion that he did not demand any special concessions for Muhammadans, but all he wished for was equal treatment. But the Hon'ble Member on the right side of the House has gone further than this. He tells us quite frankly that he wants not only equal treatment but that he wants special concessions in addition, in the way of what he describes as compensation. I cannot follow him into the question as to what compensation is required for Muhammadans on account of the readjustment of the provinces; but I think that, in putting forward a claim of this kind, the Hon'ble Member is really doing harm to the cause of Muhammadan education rather than furthering it in any way. Moreover, the Hon'ble Member has gone a good deal further than this. He frankly says that there is really nothing in the way of what has been done in the past by Government for which the Muhammadans need be very grateful. But not content with this assertion he proceeds to tell us that he does not believe in any undertaking that would be given by Government or by my department as to what may be done in the future. Well, my Lord, I must again reiterate that I cannot imagine that his attitude really represents the view of the Muhammadan community at large. If it were really the view, and if it were supported by a large body of public opinion, it would mean that a spirit would be imported into our discussions on the subject which would render any practical examination of the questions which have to come before us impossible. I repudiate, especially on the part of Government, the allegation that Government has in the past offered, as the Hon'ble Member has said, obstacles in the way of the advancement of Muhammadan education.

"We have always heard, and we have heard in no greater measure than from the Muhammadan community itself, that the Muhammadans have hitherto been backward in education, and that it was due largely to their own fault. We have also been told that the Muhammadans are now becoming alive to the benefits of good education; and yet in the face of this opinion which we have repeatedly heard, we now hear that it is Government that is responsible, and that Government has put obstacles in the way of Muhammadan education. I again fully repudiate this accusation.

"I am very sorry that the time-limit which has been assigned does not permit me to go more fully into the individual questions which have been raised by the Hon'ble Member. I may say without undue vanity that I do not think that I would have very great difficulty in meeting successfully many of the criticisms which have been offered by him to-day. One of the subjects, my Lord, to which he has referred, viz., that of a Muhammadan College, is very fascinating, and I should have liked to say one or two words about it, but I have already trespassed on the patience of this House, and in any case, I am precluded by the rules of the House with regard to the time-limit from proceeding further with the discussion.

"Before I sit down, however, I would like to come back to more peaceful waters once more, and to refer to one or more points which have been raised by other Muhammadan members who have taken part in the debate. I may briefly refer to the more important of these. The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri has deprecated the small allotment which has been made for Madrasahs in East Bengal, but I thought I had already made it sufficiently clear that it was only intended to make a beginning with this sum, and that it was impossible to anticipate the expenditure of a larger amount in the year 1913-14 in view of the fact that no definite scheme has even yet been formulated for the reform of this branch of Muhammadan education in East Bengal, far less submitted to Government for sanction. There need moreover have been no apprehension on the part of the Hon'ble Member as to the provision of funds for Madrasah reform after the clear statement which I quoted as to the intention of the Government of India with regard to the recognition of the claims of special Muhammadan institutions. The Hon'ble Member has also referred to the Moslem Institute, and while expressing the gratitude of the Muhammadan students to Government for the non-recurring grant of Rs. 45,000, has suggested that the Institute might equally with the University Institute be given a recurring grant for maintenance as well. I recognize that there appears to be some justification for this request, and I will undertake to look into the matter and see whether it is possible to recommend to Government a grant of this nature. As to the plea for a Muhammadan college, this, though an interesting subject, is, I fear, outside the scope of the present debate.

"Perhaps the most important matter to which reference has been made by the Hon'ble Member is that of the appointment of a special officer for Muhammadan education, but I need not say anything about it here, as full information has already been given on the subject by the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr in his reply to a question in Council on the 2nd instant.

"My Lord, I have endeavoured in the course of my remarks to explain the position of the Education Department with regard to the more important of the points raised by individual members of this Council. I do not pretend to have dealt even in a manner satisfactory to myself with the various matters which have come under discussion, nor have I been able to follow Hon'ble Members over the whole ground which they have covered to-day, partly for the reason I have already referred to that I am not at liberty to discuss matters which have no immediate connexion with the budget, although they may be of great general interest. Even, however, if I had been permitted a wider latitude, I should very speedily have been arrested not only by the artificial time-limit which the rules prescribe, but also by the more natural limit imposed by the patience of the Council."

THE HON'BLE MR. LYON said :—

"My Lord :—I propose to refer to only two or three points raised in the course of this debate and to make my remarks as brief as possible.

"The Hon'ble Mr. Surendra Nath Banerjee in his very interesting speech made reference to certain entries as to buildings which are to be erected during the ensuing year, and dealt also with the question of residences for certain subdivisional officers. The suggestion made by the Hon'ble Member was that we were somewhat neglecting the Civil Court officers for the subdivisional officers. It has been a reproach to the administration for some time that our subdivisional officers, specially in the smaller subdivisions where there are Indian officers, are extremely badly off in this respect and we are trying to do something for them. And I do not think that, if the Hon'ble Member was acquinted with the palatial buildings erected as courts for Civil Judicial Officers at Faridpur, Pabna, Noakhali and other stations, he would suspect us of neglecting those officers for executive officers. The Hon'ble Member also made a reference to the Collector's bungalow at Barisal and mentioned certain circumstances in which he had made acquaintance with that residence. I cannot help thinking that those circumstances somewhat affected his judgment in the matter of the amenities of that building. The present house is in a very bad state, is damp and insanitary, and I am sure that those who have a larger acquaintance with the district, as I have, will be glad that there is a prospect of the Collector being better housed in future.

"There is another matter to which the Hon'ble Member referred, and that is the care of fisheries. I do not wish to enter into that question at all. We have had a great many inquiries, as the Hon'ble Member knows. At every stage of our inquiries we have taken the public into our confidence and have published resolutions and communications stating how far we have got. The actual state of affairs at present was detailed in the resolution of Government on the 3rd December, 1911, which has been supplemented quite recently by an answer in this Council on the 17th March. I would refer the Hon'ble Member to that information, but if at any time, either by resolution or by question in this Council, we are asked for further information, we shall be glad to give it.

"The Hon'ble Mr. Chaplin and the Hon'ble Mr. Musharraf Husain have referred to the proposals for improving the roads in the Jalpaiguri district. An admirable scheme for the purpose has been drawn up by the local officers in communication with the District Board. A rough estimate of the total cost of this scheme has been called for, and Government will then consider whether it can be accepted in its entirety and how it can be financed. We have every hope that with the combined resources of the Public Works Department and the District Board it will prove possible to carry the whole scheme through eventually and, so far as Government is concerned, I can assure the Hon'ble Members that the proposals will have its full and sympathetic consideration at every stage.

"As to waterways, I have already had occasion in this Council to refer to the action we are taking in this important matter. We have enlarged our Advisory Committee and have made it more representative. We have applied for an increase of staff which will enable us to form a Department to deal almost exclusively with such matters. We are having a complete scheme drawn up for the new steamer canal, and we are preparing plans for the improvement of subsidiary channels. We are preparing an estimate and an indent for the dredging plant which is indispensable for our work, and we have recently formed a new drainage division. These are necessary preliminaries before effective and lasting work can be initiated. In the meantime we welcome the valuable support for our schemes which is given in the speeches of the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerjee and the Hon'ble Raja Hrishikesh, and we are glad to find ourselves in such complete agreement with them on the subject.

"As has been pointed out by the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler, this is not the time or the place to enter upon a discussion of the Dacca University Scheme, but I may perhaps be permitted to give expression to the gratitude which is due from all who are interested in education in Bengal to the President and members of the Dacca University Committee for the labour and care devoted by them to the preparation of the scheme, which will always stand as a model of efficient inquiry and organization. And I think that all Hon'ble Members of this Council will agree with me that our special thanks are due to Mr. Nathan, who is now about to leave this Province for Bihar and Orissa. His services have been of the greatest value to this Government and he leaves behind him, in the Dacca University Report, a memorial of those services which will not be soon forgotten. But while I cannot enter here upon a discussion of the University Scheme, I feel that I might be misunderstood if I failed to refer to the vigorous language used by the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraj Bahadur of Burdwan on the subject of the proposed well-to-do classes College. The Hon'ble Member in this matter has indulged in the pleasant pastime of raising a man of straw for the entertainment of knocking him down again. For no one, least of all the Dacca University Committee, has proposed to establish a narrow-class College at Dacca. The College suggested is to be open to all, irrespective of class, and is in fact of the exact type, suggested by the Hon'ble Member in his speech, a College "for those who by paying most, can get their own sons educated by the very best available teachers and professors, and get for their boys as good an English education as possible outside England." Indeed I cannot but think that if the Hon'ble Member will read again the Chapter in the Report which sets out the proposal in question he will range himself definitely in its favour, and I do not think his support will weaken if he also reads Appendix XIII where he will find the text of the resolution passed unanimously in favour of the proposal at an influential meeting at which not the least distinguished member of a distinguished company was the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraj Bahadur of Burdwan."

THE MAHARAJADHIRAJ BAHADUR OF BURDWAN said:—

"I did not support that Resolution."

THE HON'BLE MR. LYON said:—

"I do not wish to misrepresent the Hon'ble Member. I quote from the printed report of the meeting which says that the resolution was unanimous.

"Before sitting down I should like, with Your Excellency's permission, to refer to the regret with which we all regard the approaching retirement of the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler, who has presided over the fortunes of the Educational Department in Bengal for the past five years. Those five years have been a period of great pressure of work and much difficulty in organization and administration, and, although Government was willing to extend the term of Mr. Küchler's service, it cannot be deemed surprising that he was unable, for private reasons, to accept our offer. The sympathy and lucidity with which Mr. Küchler has dealt with educational matters in this Council will enable Hon'ble Members to understand how greatly his colleagues in the Government and his fellow officers in the Educational Department will miss him By his retirement the Government loses a valuable source of strength, while the Department loses a trusted and respected chief. Mr. Küchler carries with him in his departure the cordial good wishes of many friends and admirers, and I venture to assure him that among them will be found the members of the Government with which he has worked so long, and the Members of the Council in which he has himself played such a distinguished part."

THE HON'BLE NAWAB SYED SHAMS-UL-HUDA said:—

"My Lord, I wish just to say a few words on the subjects dealt with by the Hon'ble Members so far as they specially concern me, and the most important of these subjects is sanitation. A good deal has been said on this subject and I am glad to say that with much that has been said we are in sympathy. The question of sanitation resolves itself into two branches: rural and urban. So far as rural sanitation is concerned, it has been realised and appreciated by all Hon'ble Members who have spoken that the determination of the Government of India to make over the whole of the Public Works cess to the local bodies practically solves the difficulty. The most important measures of sanitation which we are called upon from time to time to deal with are those of water-supply and drainage and Hon'ble Members are aware of the great interest which His Excellency himself has taken on this question, and the conference which was called at Darjeeling to discuss the question of water-supply gave valuable advice to Government and Government will always be willing, so far as it can, to co-operate with local bodies in solving this very important question. We expect from the large grants over and above those which had hitherto been placed at the disposal of the Boards that if they have well-thought out plans and keep the matter always in view, then in the course of 10 or 15 years the whole question of water-supply will be solved.

"As regards urban sanitation it has been pointed out by the Hon'ble Mr. Chakravarti that most of the municipalities are very poor, that they have not sufficient funds with which to carry out necessary improvements, and that they have to appeal to Government for aid. This is what I understand him to say. There is no doubt that those who have followed the course of events know that Government has made large grants to municipalities in recent years and that all large projects of sanitation such as water-supply and drainage within municipal limits have been carried with substantial assistance from Government. Hon'ble Members must realise that the essence of the idea of self-government is that local requirements are to be met from local funds, that a town in one part of the province should not be dependent upon rates and taxes gathered from the other parts to solve its own difficulties. I hope local bodies would always realise that it is for them to work out their own salvation, and although Government will be willing to stretch a helping hand to them when they deserve it or when they have done their best, Government cannot give a guarantee to help them always. It has been said by some Hon'ble Members that we have fixed a hard and fast limit as regards the proportion of help that Government gives to municipalities in carrying out their schemes of sanitation. This is hardly correct. Although no doubt as a general rule we give a third and the municipality is expected either from loans or from donations or other sources to contribute the two-thirds, whenever a real case of hardship comes up before Government and whenever we have realized that the municipalities have done all that could be expected of them to do and when the public support has not been sufficient, we have paid a good deal more than the usual one-third which some of my Hon'ble friends have said was inadequate. We have been able to do this largely in consequence of the grants which the Government of India have from year to year specially ear-marked for sanitation, and I cannot believe what was stated by Hon'ble Mr. Surendra Nath Rai that there are municipalities who are not aware that Government gives this one-third. I think Hon'ble Member does a great deal of injustice to the Municipal Commissioners of this Presidency, and I think they are far more intelligent than he is willing to believe they are. The suggestion is to ask all the municipalities to put forward their schemes and ask them what they can pay, the rest being paid by us to carry the work through. If we did this, we know we will be creating difficulties and it will induce municipalities with no funds to stretch their hands to Government and ask of it what they themselves are really expected to do.

"To these remarks I would just add a very few words, by way of reply to remarks made by individual members on some of the points. The Hon'ble Rai Hari Mohan Chandra Bahadur remarks that the Rs. 50,000 budgeted for jungle-cutting should be devoted for the purpose of improving sanitation in some part of the country. My hon'ble friend does not probably know that this money is not available for such a general purpose, and that it was money that was granted by the Indian Research Society for the purpose of carrying on an experiment in order to see what effect jungle-cutting has on malaria. We have a committee of experts to advise, of which my Hon'ble friend Dr. Nilratan Sarkar is a distinguished member. The Hon'ble Rai Hari Mohan Chandra Bahadur thinks that it is no use making an experiment of this kind, because as he says jungle-cutting does remove malaria. He will probably be surprised to learn that there is no such unanimity of opinion among our experts. The question is however not whether this money should be devoted to sanitation, but the question is whether the offer made by the Government of India for this experiment should or should not be accepted, and whether if accepted we can devote it to any useful purpose at all. The Hon'ble Rai Hari Mohan Chandra Bahadur makes a mistake in his comments about the budget grant of Rs. 30,562. He says that this sum has been provided for anti-malarial measures in Eastern Bengal and he sees no reason why Western Bengal which contains some of the worst malarial districts should be excluded from the measures contemplated. As a matter of fact this sum is not a grant for the next year, but it is an expenditure in the past year for quinine distribution in camps started by the late Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam, and was only continued by this Government. In Western Bengal expenditure has also been incurred in regard to quinine distribution, and also for the deputation of 24 Sub-Assistant Surgeons to especially malarial districts. The Hon'ble the Maharaja Ranajit Sinha suggests that water-works and drainage schemes should be called for from all municipalities for being submitted to Government, so that we my decide which of the schemes we should help. I have already in my general remarks tried to meet the Hon'ble Member's arguments. Then the Hon'ble Babu Mahendra Nath Ray speaks of the likelihood of the sanitation grant not being spent during the year owing to the absence of matured schemes. I wish to point out to my Hon'ble friend that there is no risk of the money being lost. The grants for sanitation are not made until schemes are ready to be carried out. It is impossible to draw up a programme of schemes as it is impossible to say when it will mature. But if the money provided under the head of "Sanitation" is not expended during the year it is provided again in the Budget of the following year, and is therefore not lost. Probably my Hon'ble friend has an idea that the money will be lost, though as a matter of fact it will not be so.

"The Hon'ble Dr. Nilratan Sarkar criticises the amount that is spent on establishments in the expenditure out of the sanitary grants. It is a general complaint. There is an impression in the minds of the Members of Council that this Government spends a great deal more on inspection and supervision than it is necessary to do. I do not undertake to answer for other departments, but as regards the department of sanitation, I should like to point out that in 1911-12, 75 per cent. was given as grants to schemes of water-supply and drainage, and in 1912-13 the percentage was 79, so that we have not been quite as bad as the Hon'ble Member thinks. The Hon'ble Raja Hrishikesh Laha speaks of the grant of Rs. 15,000 to District Boards for the improvement of water-supply in rural areas. The remarks he made are based on a misapprehension. It is not a budget grant for the next year, but an expenditure in the last year. It represent grants actually hard to District Boards on the basis of one third of the amount expended by them on rural water-supply in any one district.

"My Hon'ble friend Babu Surendra Nath Ray has spoken of further powers to the District Boards and mufassal municipalities. This question was taken up by the Decentralisation Commission, and under a recent Circular, certain municicipalities have given larger powers in respect of the control of their funds. I have nothing more to say on the subject of sanitation.

"I will now say a few words on the question of Muhammadan education. That question has been very fully discussed by the Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri. He has spoken somewhat hopefully, but the Hon'ble Mr. Faz-ul-Haq has sounded a note of despair. I am afraid, the latter gentleman has taken an unduly pessimistic view of the situation. The Hon'ble Mr. Kuchler has to a certain extent replied to the criticism offered by the Hon'ble Members, and I do not desire to say anything or to express any assent or dissent to either of the views expressed on the subject. I would only say this that only recently the Government of India have sanctioned a special officer for Muhammadan education. He is to be a member of the Indian Educational Service and a European. It will be his duty to take charge of the special Muhammadan educational institutions, and as regards general education his function would be that of an adviser. He will see what can be done to improve the Muhammadan colleges and also to improve the accommodation in hostels for Muhammadan boys. I hope when this officer has been appointed and when he has time to study the requirements of the Muhammadan Community that something would be done with the large fund placed at our disposal by the Government of India to solve this difficult problem. I need hardly say that in a province where the Muhammadan element predominates, the question of Muhammadan education cannot be ignored by Government, and my Hon'ble friends may be assured that the question of Muhammadan education will not suffer for lack of sympathy in the administration.

"The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Choudhuri has spoken of the misgivings in the minds of the Muhammadan Community in respect of the management of the Syedpur Trust Estate. Sometime ago the manager of the estate against whom various charges were brought was first suspended and then transferred, and in his place another manager has been appointed. I hope the Hon'ble Member will take my assurance when I say that I had the accounts of the estate brought up a few months ago. and I had them carefully examined to see whether the funds have been properly administered or not, and I have come to the conclusion that there is no case for any anxiety.

"Turning to remarks relating to the Judicial Department, I will try to answer my Hon'ble friends who have spoken on the subject of revision and improvements that are necessary in this department in so far as the pay and prospects of the subordinate judicial officers are concerned. I have already said, when introducing the budget under this particular head, of the improvements that were contemplated and the sum of Rs. 50,000 which we have provided for the regrading of the Munsifs, and I need not go into details as regards these items now, in view of the fact that final sanctions are still awaited. I can only assure my hon'ble friends that the cause of the judicial officers will be considered with sympathy and that nothing will be left undone to do justice to the claims of one of the most deserving classes of public servants, and no one is more interested in this question than I am.

"Something has been said about the Civil Court buildings. No doubt in the present budget we could only make provision for such as were deserving of urgent attention. I have, however, in my hand a list of the various projects which are now before Government, and I may say that we are steadily working with a view to do which is necessary, and perhaps in a few years many of the Courts would be held in better buildings. We have now about 12 schemes sanctioned for the Presidency for the construction of Civil Courts and residences of judicial officers. A large proportion of these schemes have been approved of but for want of funds all of them could not be taken in hand just at present. I need hardly remind Hon'ble Members that even Government of a Presidency like Bengal has its limitations, and that no large scheme can be carried out in one single year. But if an assurance is needed that Government intends earnestly to take the matter up that assurance may readily be given."

THE HON'BLE SIR WILLIAM DUKE said :—

"I propose to deal with only a few of the more important points which have been mentioned, and I will commence with those which affect the Financial Department.

"The Hon'ble Raja Hrishikesh Laha has commented on the assignment of Rs. 60,000 as provision against famine, and has suggested that in the present prosperous agricultural conditions it seems to be unnecessary. I agree that we have every reason to hope that there will be no famine in the land this year ; although it must be remembered that whenever a failure of the rains occurs or severe floods take place, scarcity conditions may spring up immediately afterwards, and that therefore provision against famine must be made independent of any indication of what is coming. This provision of Rs. 60,000 is, however, part of a general scheme for equalizing the burden of famine relief for the whole of India which the Government of India have adopted since 1907. The Government of India require each Province to set aside a fixed grant each year which will accummulate up to a fixed maximum; should famine occur, expenditure may be incurred up to the whole amount so accummulated. When that is exhausted, further expenditure is shared equally between the Imperial and the Local Governments. In old Bengal, which contained many districts liable to famine, the annual assignment was Rs. 2,60,000, and the maximum limit of accumulation 25 lakhs. In the present Province, fortunately, there are, but few districts so liable, and the annual assignment has been fixed at Rs. 60,000 and the limit of accumulation at 5 lakhs. We started with Rs. 1,20,000 to our credit, and in the course of five years more if no famine expenditure is incurred in the interim, we shall have reached the maximum. The whole matter is however a book transaction, the Government of India provide the amount themselves, and it does not pass through the provincial balances, as an equivalent debit is always made under the head 36 "reduction or avoidance of debt." All that it implies is that the amount at credit can, as I have said, be spent as soon as famine is declared, without any burden on provincial revenues.

"The Hon'ble Rai Nalinaksha Basu Bahadur, in speaking on Excise exhibited alarm at the fact that the Excise Revenue of Rs. 57,66,000 in 1899-10 had grown to Rs. 138,55,000 in the budget. He has perhaps forgotten that formerly we had only half the receipts from Excise. Now, we have the whole; so that the increase is very much less than he supposes. I may say that Government is constantly alive to the necessity of checking increased consumption. The rate of duty on country liquor has lately been revised and increased, and the rate of duty on ganja has just been increased.

"The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerjee suggested that we might use our balances for lending, and so avoid the necessity of paying interest to the Government of India on money given out for loans. Although it is satisfactory that we have such large balances, they are a consequence of large surpluses in the Imperial revenues and the concomitant system of doles; but they are there, not to be lent out at interest but to be spent as rapidly as possible. It is true that we do not expect to exhaust them completely for two or three years, but it must be remembered that almost all loans made are made for a much longer period, and if we were to give out the money on loan we should not be able to recover it for expenditure when required; further, although I cannot speak with any authority as to the system followed by the Government of India with reference to loans, I believe that it is probably not to make them out of taxation. It would not be fair for Government to tax the people and then give their money out at interest. The money advanced on loans is understood to be generally obtained by borrowing.

"The Hon'ble Mr. Chakravarti asked for more time at the various stages of the Financial Statement. The stages depend on the corresponding stages in the Government of India. We can only proceed to each stage after the Government of India has passed that stage. We have expedited the statement by every day we can on our own account; and over and above that, we have induced the Government of India to rearrange their dates so as to give us a good many extra days. I doubt whether more is physically possible; but if it is, it can only be got by moving the Government of India.

"A few medical questions have been touched on but they are somewhat mixed up with other matters they have been dealt with by the Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Shams-ul-Huda. The Hon'ble Maharaja Ranajit Sinha observed that municipalities should have the power of appointing their own medical officers for their own dispensaries at the headquarters and subdivisions. The case is that in all dispensaries except the State dispensaries the managing authorities have the power of appointing their own medical officers subject to the approval of the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals; and it is the policy of Government to restrict as far as possible the number of Government officers lent to dispensaries. As a matter of fact we have been withdrawing certain Government officers who have been lent to dispensaries and inviting the authorities to appoint their own men.

"The Hon'ble Dr. Sarkar, in a very closely reasoned speech referred to the comparatively small number of State dispensaries and the small amount of contribution made to them in Bengal as compared with Bombay. It is rather difficult to compare the figures for medical and sanitation purposes separately. In the two Presidencies, they are very much mixed up together; but taking the two together it is true that Bombay about four or five years ago spent on the whole a good deal more than Bengal. Now it spends about two lakhs less on the combined purposes. It is however the case that the Bombay Government maintains more dispensaries in the mufassal than Bengal does and has been spending more on them. On the other hand however Bengal spend far more on hospitals in Calcutta than the Bombay Government does on hospitals in Bombay. The difference now is not what it was. In 1909 the expenditure in Calcutta by Government on medical purposes was double the expenditure in Bombay and even at the present day it is still two lakhs more than the Bombay expenditure. It is therefore obvious that if Government has so much to spend at the capital there is less to spend in the mufassal. Personally I have always felt that the mufassal in Bengal is rather at a serious disadvantage in comparison with the capital. It is of course right that Calcutta hospitals should be maintained at the very highest possible standard. They should be equipped on modern methods; but still in a poor country that expenditure at the capital must come from somewhere, and the effect has been that there is less to go round. The only remedy that I can suggest is this, that the public might give more than they do towards the support of medical institutions in Calcutta. It is possible that in Bombay they do more.

"The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri commented on the fact that only one listed post is held by a Muhammadan. The answer is that there are hardly any Muhammadans in the higher grade of either service, and the possibilities of selection are limited. There are plenty of junior officers recruited more recently, and their turn will come in due time, but we cannot disregard all the ordinary rules of selection in order to promote junior Muhammadans, to listed posts.

"The Hon'ble Dr. Sarbadhikari has dwelt at length on the grievances of the Provincial Judicial Service, and has produced an elaborate scheme for their relief. The action which has been taken by Government was stated in reply to a question in Council on the 5th March. The proposals of this Government for the reorganization of the service are now before the Government of India, and it seems unnecessary to discuss them further at present. It was stated at the same time that the question of the pay of the lowest grade of Munsifs would be taken up when the orders of the Government of India about the reorganization had been received.

"The same Hon'ble gentleman referred to the grievously congested condition of the Calcutta Police Courts, a condition which Government fully admits. A full statement of how the matter stands at present was made in Council on Wednesday, the 2nd April. We have already thrown away much labour on schemes which from circumstances beyond our control have come to nothing; but that will not deter us from trying to accomplish a radical improvement.

"The Hon'ble Dr. Sarbadhikari also dealt at some length with the position of the Subordinate Executive Service and claimed that in view of the education and general standing of the present members of that service more should be done to level up their position to that of the Provincial Service. I admit that the officers appointed in recent years have very often been of much the same class as those who entered the Provincial Service. It is satisfactory that well-qualified men should come forward and probably the number of men of the Subordinate Service who have in recent years been selected for the Provincial Service has had much to do with popularising the former. When, however, it is contended that the duties of the Subordinate Service are the same as those of the Provincial Service, I cannot admit the position. Sub-Deputy Collectors are recruited for comparatively petty revenue duties, and the Magisterial work which they perform is also very much inferior in importance to what falls to the lot of the Provincial Service. No doubt, at the commencement of their service their pay and allowances are comparatively small; but the travelling allowance rules have been modified in their favour in recent years, and those of them whose work entails prolonged camping receive special rates. I feel also that I must deprecate the comment on the fact that the lower grades of Sub-Deputy Collectors are paid less than the lowest grade of Inspectors of Police, while it is contended that as gazetted officers they have a position to keep up. Neither Sub-Deputy Collectors nor Inspectors of Police are technically gazetted officers. Whatever views may be held as to the relative status and merits of the two classes of officers, it must be remembered that Sub-Deputy Collectors are in the vast majority of cases young men appointed for the first time to Government service; while Inspectors of Police are men specially selected after many years of service in the subordinate grades.

"The same gentleman and Hon'ble Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur have referred to the poor pay and prospects of head-constables in Calcutta. These facts have not escaped the notice of Government. The gap between them and Sub-Inspectors is excessive and the question of improving their position will be considered.

"In dealing with the Police, the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji referred to the great increase of ten lakhs in the budget estimate. The greater part of this increase occurs in Eastern Bengal; in West Bengal the reforms undertaken upon the recommendations of the Police Commission had mostly been carried out before the re-arrangement of Provinces. Comparatively little remains to be done there. In East Bengal, however, the Province being new, it was only in 1910 that the Secretary of State sanctioned a complete scheme of reorganization and this for the most part still remains to be given effect to. The present budget represents a large instalment of it. I gather that the views of the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banarji are not universally shared, at any rate, by the inhabitants of East Bengal, for the Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri has referred with satisfaction to the progress of the reorganization and the completion of the scheme for river police. He has noticed how small the force in Eastern Bengal is in comparison to the population and how necessary it is that it should be strengthened.

"The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji has also referred to the great prevalence of dacoities and the ill success of the police in detecting them. Of course, if it be held that it is because the police are useless that dacoities are not detected, it follows that nothing will be gained by spending more money on the police. But in that case there is no apparent means of checking dacoities at all. Now, I do not wish in any way to minimize the seriousness of dacoity either in East Bengal or in other parts of the Province. It is a blot on the administration; indeed, it is a blot on the whole civilization of the country that open gang robbery with violence should be prevalent. I am not also, at present, going into the controversial subject of whether the people give so little help, because they will not or because they cannot. I am very willing to believe that in the great majority of cases, the dacoits not being known to them, they can give very little help. However, that may be, it must be admitted that the police have to deal with dacoities as they can with but little outside assistance. Now the facts are bad enough; but do they when impartially considered indicate that the state of things is becoming worse or better? No doubt, we hear a great deal of dacoities; but, from the figures which were recorded in former times, we know that in many districts they were infinitely more prevalent than they now are. In that golden age of prosperity, health and innocence which came to an end about seventy years ago, there were sometimes nearly as many dacoities in one year in a single district, as there now are in the whole Province.

"Taking the recent figures, there are signs of marked improvement. In the East Bengal districts, there were 179 cases in 1910; and 181 in 1911. In 1912, there were 130. These are the gross figures of all cases reported, including such as subsequently proved to be false, or at any rate not to be dacoities. For 1912, they certainly showed a marked improvement. Only one-ninth of these cases were successfully detected. This is no doubt very unsatisfactory, but it by no means implies that eight-ninths of the gangs of dacoits escape with impunity. People do not commit dacoity as an isolated offence. Those who have taken to it commit series of offences until they have done sufficiently well for the time being or until they come to grief. They may not fall into the hands of the police the first time for if they did there would be no more dacoity. But if that misfortune overtakes them even at the fifth or sixth instance, their operations would be put an end to for a number of years. As a matter of fact, the figures, such as they are, must mean that gangs of dacoits have a comparatively short life and incur considerable risk. But the success of police work is not to be measured by detection alone. A very great deal is done by preventive action, and the reduction is probably as much attributable to that as to detection.

"I would like to ask those who speak and write so freely about the ill success of the police in detecting dacoities, whether they have seriously considered what the conditions are. The usual question is—"Where are the police?" Well the police are not generally just round the corner. In the ordinary mufassal district, there is perhaps one police-station to about a hundred square miles. Dacoits, we know, now take every advantage of modern means of communication. They may come by rail or steamer from long distances. They commit an offence at a place perhaps seven or ten miles from the nearest police-station, and before information has reached the police, they are already many miles away, perhaps already in the train or steamer on their return. At the scene of the crime, there is no one who knows any of them, except perhaps a single accomplice who brought them there, but was himself careful not to appear. When the police have to deal with a class of crime in its nature so difficult to detect can it be denied that they require both increase in numbers and everything that can be supplied in the way of training and equipment which is calculated to make them more efficient?

"The Hon'ble Mr. Chakravarti referred also to a cognate subject—the desire of the well-to-do people to be allowed to keep fire-arms in order to detect these crimes and also to protect themselves. For the last two or three years, at any rate, perhaps, longer in Eastern Bengal where dacoities were more prevalent, than in West Bengal, Government has been giving out large number of guns to respectable people who are willing to take them and who would also undertake to use them, for self protection, Government is also ready to allow people, whose character and position are beyond dispute, to arm themselves. But the difficulty, which we find, is not in having sufficient guns to go round but in getting the people to take them. Where dacoities are prevalent, many people refuse to take arms, because if they are known to possess arms, they will be the first object of attack. They fear that their guns will be stolen and they will be punished for having lost them. I am stating the actual facts that have taken place, for many people have applied to be relieved of this troublesome possession. Therefore, the matter is not so simple as it appears.

"The Hon'ble Mr. Chakravarti referred also to the employment of stenographers in the original side of the High Court. I have only to remind him that the High Court is under the Government of India, and although no doubt we shall have to provide the money, it is the Government of India who are first to be persuaded of the desirability of allowing there stenographers. If they can be induced to allow them we shall have no difficulty in providing the funds.

RESOLUTION ON MATTERS OF GENERAL PUBLIC INTEREST.

The following resolution and amendment stood in the names of the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji and the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Faz-ul-Haq, respectively :—

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI to move :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council—

(a) that a scheme be prepared and submitted to this Council, as early as may be convenient, showing details of the allotments, which the Local Government may propose, of the Imperial Educational grants of Rs. 75 lakhs (non-recurring) and of Rs. 13·20 lakhs (recurring) ; and

(b) that a similar scheme be submitted, showing, so far as is practicable, details of Rs. 20 lakhs of non-recurring expenditure for sanitation and of Rs. 29·93 lakhs recurring for rural water-supply and sanitation.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Faz-ul-Haq to move that after the words "Rs. 13·20 lakhs (recurring)" at the end of clause (a) of the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji's Resolution, the following words be inserted, namely :—

"and that any sums proposed to be spent for the special benefit of the Muhammadans be separately shown."

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI said :—

"My Lord, I have the honour to move the resolution which stands against my name. With your Excellency's permission, I desire to break up that resolution into two parts and to move the first part of the resolution, and then, after that resolution has been disposed of, to proceed with the second part. If your Excellency grants me that permission, I shall move the first part."

The PRESIDENT said :—

"I agree."

"My Lord, I am also ready to incorporate in my resolution, the resolution which is to be moved by the Hon'ble Maulvi Faz-ul-Haq, as it really forms a part of my resolution, because if there are special funds to be devoted to Muhammadan education, then under the terms of my resolution these funds must be shown in the scheme I proposed. I take it that I have your Excellency's permission to incorporate that resolution in mine."

The resolution thus took the following form.

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council—

(a) that a scheme be prepared and submitted to this Council, as early as may be convenient, showing details of the allotments, which the Local Government may propose, of the Imperial Educational grants of Rs. 75 lakhs (non-recurring) and of Rs. 13·20 lakhs (recurring) ; and that any sums proposed to be spent for the special benefit of the Muhammadans be separately shown.

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI said :—

"My Lord, my resolution is an exceedingly moderate one. My object is to obtain information. What I propose is that the Government will be pleased to lay on the table a fairly full programme of its educational and sanitary expenditure (the latter has reference to the next part of the resolution) for the year 1913-14. I do not invite the Government to accept any new policy or to deviate in any way from any accepted policy. Information is what I solicit. Light—more kindly light—amid the bewildering maze of budget figures is what I pray for. I am sure that it is a request to which the Government will accede. My Lord, the Government of India have, in the abundance of their generosity, made a grant of 2½ crores of rupees for educational purposes to the various Local Governments. We, in Bengal, get 52½ lakhs out of this grant. This is a non-recurring grant. But this is not all. The Government of India have, out of the opium surplus, made a further grant of 69 lakhs for educational purposes to be given to all the Provincial Governments. Out of this grant, which is also of a non-recurring character, we get in Bengal 22½ lakhs. Therefore, my Lord, putting these two figures together we get 75 lakhs from the Government of India as a non-recurring grant to be spent on educational purposes. But, my Lord, the generosity of the Government of India does not stop here. We not only get 75 lakhs out of the surplus of the revised estimates of 1912-13, but we get a further grant of Rs. 13,20,000 out of the estimates of 1913-14, and that is a recurring grant. My Lord, at pages 19 and 63 of the Budget estimates, we have some details given of the expenditure under these heads. My complaint is that these details are not enough. They certainly do not seem to me to be sufficient. I am anxious that full particulars should be submitted to this Council and the country, so that the public, if they approve, may co-operate with the Government; if they do not approve, they may criticise the measures of Government. My Lord, co-operation will be the rule; criticism will be the exception, for in the present temper of the public mind, at any rate in regard to the important considerations of education and sanitation, I apprehend that the public are more willing to co-operate than criticise the Government, more willing to help than embarrass the Government. My Lord, if these details are furnished, the public can watch the operations of the department with intelligent interest, and public interest will be helpful to the Administration. It will stimulate the enthusiasm of the department; it will bring about a larger outturn of work, and I think also that it will prevent the grants from lapsing as they have sometimes lapsed. My Lord, perhaps, it will be necessary for me to explain what I precisely mean when I say that we want further details of these various items of expenditure. I take an item at page 19 of the Budget—Rs. 9,25,000 against popular education. My Lord, we want to know how much of this money is to be spent upon school buildings, how much on the training of teachers, how much upon the maintenance of the inspectorial staff and how much upon the actual work of starting primary schools. There is a passage in the despatch of the Government of India which I am afraid has created a sense of alarm and anxiety in the public mind. That passage says that, in view of the fact that in Bengal there are primary schools within a radius of every three miles, there is not the same urgency in starting schools in Bengal as there is in the other provinces. I desire most humbly but most emphatically to protest against this observation. Is our success in the matter of primary education—assuming that we have been successful in this matter—to be brought forward as a charge against us, or as an argument for staying further progress, and are we to be told that we must cry, Halt until the other provinces are brought into line with us? If the position is carefully analysed, it will be seen that very much progress has not been made even in Bengal as regards primary education. Taking the most favourable view of the situation we find that only in some of the advanced districts about 25 per cent. of the school-going population excluding girls avail themselves of the primary schools. Therefore upon the shoulders of this Government rests the responsibility of reclaiming the vast masses of our people stooped in illiteracy from ignorance and its attendant evils. To say, even by implication, that because in some of our districts there are primary schools within a three-mile radius and because 25 per cent. of the population attend these schools that there is to be no further expansion and no starting of new schools, that to lay down a policy which is inconsistent with the traditions of the Government and will not be accepted by the country. In this connection, my Lord, I may be permitted to refer to an apprehension which fills the public mind, namely, that mere money out of the grant for primary schools might be spent upon school buildings and the inspectorial staff than upon the establishment of primary schools. This feeling should be removed. My Lord, I may here once again advert to the observations made by the Hon'ble Dr. Nilratan Sarkar in regard to secondary education. I found in the reply of the Director of Public Instruction this morning that no reference was made to this part of the observations of my friend. There has been of late a distinct tendency to add to the expansiveness of secondary education. However generous, however liberal the Government may be, the fact cannot be concealed that the burden of the educational expenditure must in the last resort fall on the people; all the seekers of education in our community are amongst the poor classes and therefore to make education expensive would be to restrict the educational area to only the wealthy classes. I am sure even the wealthy classes, the representatives of whom are here, the Hon'ble Maharaja of Nator and the Maharaja of Burdwan, would be the first to protest against the restriction of secondary education to the representatives of their class. That would be a disaster to the best interests of education.

"Before I sit down you will perhaps permit me to associate myself with the observations that have fallen from the Hon'ble Mr. Lyon in regard to the administration of Mr. Küchler who is about to retire. I will say this without fear of challenge or contradiction, and I will say it on behalf of my educated countrymen as one entitled to be their spokesman in a matter of this kind that the Hon'ble Mr. Küchler's educational administration will be regarded as one of the most efficient, as one of the most sympathetic and as one of the ablest we have witnessed in these years. For five years Mr. Küchler has presided over the educational administration of this Province with a tact, a degree of knowledge and insight and with a sympathy that has won for him the unstinted confidence, esteem and measure of gratitude of the people of Bengal. We wish him prosperity and happiness in his retirement and we only hope his successor will be as able, as worthy and as sympathetic as he has been.

"One word more, and that is with reference to the observations made by the Hon'ble Mr. Lyon in reference to a meeting at which my friend on my right the Hon'ble Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan was present—.

The HON'BLE MR. LYON said :—

"I rise to a point of order. I do not know whether this matter can be discussed in connection with this resolution."

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI said :—

"My friend here has not the right of a reply and he has asked me to reply for him. He feels that a statement has been made which does not do him the fullest justice."

The PRESIDENT said :—

"If he has not the right to make a reply, it will not be in order for you to speak on it."

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI said :—

"Very well. I will not say what I wanted to on the matter.

"One word more and I have done. You will find on page 63 of the Budget Report three items of expenditure of heavy amounts. One is Rs. 7,45,000, another is Rs. 24,00,000 and the third, Rs. 11,000. Not a single detail is given with regard to these items of expenditure and I think I have therefore made out a strong case for laying on this table a full programme of expenditure to be incurred, recurring and non-recurring, in regard to education, and I hope and trust that the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Department will accept this resolution."

The HON'BLE MR. LYON said :—

"My Lord, I hope I shall not be suspected of wishing to treat the Hon'ble Member's interesting speech with any sort of disrespect if I answer it very briefly indeed. The main point is that Government will accept his motion and is prepared to accept the addition made by the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Faz-ul-Haq. The Government is most anxious to afford to Hon'ble Members of this Council and to the public, through this Council, every possible information as to the expenditure to be incurred from the large grants that they have received. I think I may claim that, during the short life of this Council, we have shown ourselves willing to meet every demand and every request for information. We have had a very large number of requests for information addressed to us, and I know that the Hon'ble Members behind me, the Secretaries of the various Departments, have devoted an enormous amount of time, gathering together all possible information for which Hon'ble Members have asked. I do not think therefore that we shall be slow in filling up the gaps of information pointed out by the Hon'ble Member, and I undertake to say that this scheme that he asks for will be prepared as fully and completely as I hope he can wish.

"The Hon'ble Member has raised several matters of policy and discussed several matters connected with policy in his speech, and I do not think that I am called upon, as I am so ready to meet him, to go into these questions of policy; they do not arise out of the motion and I rose to a point of order because it seemed to me that the subject the Member then raised was only one out of four or five that he raised during his speech, which were not in order according to the motion. I need only add one word and that is in reference to the details of the allotments which the Local Government may be prepared to make. The Hon'ble Members are aware that the grant from the Imperial Government is a circumscribed grant, and it is only within such allotments as are made by the Imperial Government and within those restrictions that we shall be able to make allotments ourselves. The Government is quite willing to accept the motion and the addition that has been made."

The HON'BLE MAULVI A. K. FAZ-UL-HAQ said :—

"My Lord, after what has fallen from the Hon'ble Mr. Lyon I don't think, I could take up the time of the Council by formally moving the amendment and I take this opportunity to express my grateful thanks and the thanks of the community to the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji who incorporated my amendment in his resolution and to the Government for having so readily accepted it.

"I venture to speak on behalf of my community, although doubts have been expressed in the official quarters whether I have a right to speak on behalf of the Muhammadan community, but I do venture to speak on their behalf in this Council, because I think the very fact of my presence here is primâ facie evidence that I have a right to speak on their behalf. That is a trivial matter and I don't wish to waste the time of the Council over that, for I am prepared to leave the determination of that question to the sure and certain arbitration of time. For the present, as I have already said, I only say this much that we are grateful to Government for having accepted my amendment.

"One word more before I sit down. As regards the criticisms which I made on the Budget, I had no intention to cast any reflections on any individual officer of Government and my only object was to criticise the Government generally. As regards Mr. Küchler himself, I wish to associate myself with all that has fallen from the Hon'ble Mr. Lyon and the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji, and I wish to say that, so far as our community is concerned, we have got no personal grievance with regard to the administration of his Department. What I complained of was that the Muhammadan grievances were not adequately brought to the notice of Government and not adequately represented. As I have already said, I do not wish to say very much more and I only wish to conclude with these words that I hope Mr. Küchler, on the eve of his retirement, will not take away any unpleasant memories of the debate of this morning."

The resolution was then put and agreed to.

The HON'BLE MAULVI ABUL KASEM then withdrew the following amendment :—

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem to move that after the words "Rs. 13·20 lakhs (recurring)" at the end of clause (a) of the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji's resolution, the following words be inserted, namely—

> "and that the allotments made for the building of hostels for Muhammadan boys, for special scholarships and stipends for Muhammadan students, and for providing facilities for the teaching of Persian, Urdu and Arabic be shown separately in the scheme."

He said :—

"My Lord, my hon'ble friend's amendment includes mine, and I therefore beg to withdraw it."

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI then moved clause (b) of his original resolution in the following form :—

"This Council further recommends to the Governor in Council—

> (b) that a scheme similar to that referred to in the preceding resolution be submitted, showing, so far as is practicable, details of Rs. 20 lakhs of non-recurring expenditure for sanitation and of Rs. 29·93 lakhs recurring for rural water-supply and sanitation."

He said —

"My Lord, you will have noticed that in this resolution I have somewhat modified the wording of the previous resolution. I say "that a scheme be submitted showing the details so far as may be practicable", because I know there are difficulties in the way of the practicability of such a scheme. The drawing up of this scheme will take time and it will perhaps need modifications. It will have to be considered, it may be, over and over again ; and therefore I have advisedly used those words in order that Government may see its way to accept this resolution subject to that reservation. It seems to me a matter of first importance that, in regard to these sanitary improvements, the Government should take the public into its confidence. If there is one Department of the Administration more than another in which the co-operation of the people is helpful—I was going to say indispensable—it is the Department of Sanitation which affects the daily lives and habits of the people. Your Excellency's Government has shown the appreciation of this principle by convening a Sanitary Conference at Darjeeling over which the Hon'ble Nawab Shams-ul-Huda presided. My resolution represents only a continuation of this policy, a policy of trust and confidence in the people, of co-operation with them in matters regarding sanitation. I hope that, if there are practical difficulties, they may be overcome and the public taken into the confidence of the Government. Sanitary experts may be very helpful ; but local opinion, local convenience and local knowledge are matters of first importance, and they can be effectually utilized by the publication of these schemes before adoption.

"The Hon'ble Nawab Shams-ul-Huda the other day, in introducing the Sanitary Budget, expressed the hope that local bodies would, in appreciation of the beneficence of Government, pay greater attention to their duties and make a juster distribution of the amounts entrusted to them. I am sure the Council will share in this hope. But it is not only necessary to strengthen the financial resources of the local bodies but that larger powers should be conferred on them. I believe that that is the view that was expressed to-day in the course of the discussion on the Budget. Their constitution should be revised and modelled upon more liberal lines. The Bengal Municipal Act has not been modified since 1895, and the Local Self-Government Act has been revised since 1885. I rejoice to learn that the recommendations of the Decentralization Commission, so far as they affect the municipalities, are before the Secretary of State, and I hope early orders will be passed and that these orders will include the establishment of Local Government Boards on this Province. The work of the district must be separated from the work of local self-government, and the claims of sanitation have to be reconciled with the claims of local self-government. It seems to me that, in this situation with the difficulties that are gathering around us, the best thing we can do is to rely on the lessons which English experience and English institutions have taught us, and create a separate local board for guarding and controlling the system of local self-government. With these observations I beg to move the resolution which stands in my name."

The HON'BLE MR. STEPHENSON said :—

"The second part of this resolution cannot be dealt with quite so easily as the first part. Government is asked to prepare a scheme showing, so far as is practicable, details of the 20 lakhs of non-recurring expenditure for sanitation and of 29·93 lakhs recurring for rural water-supply and sanitation. I presume that the 29·93 lakhs is made up of 24·93 lakhs recurring assignment to this Province in connection with the remission of appropriations from cesses and 5 lakhs recurring grant for sanitation. To take the 24·93 first: This is a recurring assignment to the Provincial Revenues not for the purposes of rural water-supply and sanitation, but to compensate for the loss of the appropriations from cesses. The District Boards gain to this extent, but we have not yet received the orders of the Government of India regarding the conditions on which this extra grant to the District Boards is to be made, and we have no power to hand the money over until we have received the detailed orders of the Secretary of State on the proposals submitted to him on the subject by the Government of India. It would be impossible, therefore, for this Government to draw up any scheme for the expenditure of this amount. The Government of India have indicated a hope that a substantial portion of the sum may be set apart for the improvement of rural water-supply, for anti-malarial measures and generally for the sanitation of villages and small towns, and they have made a reference in this connection to the recommendations of the Malaria Conference held in Madras last November, but it must be remembered that, though it may finally be decided that this Government can lay down conditions regarding this grant, the actual expenditure will be incurred by the District Boards concerned, and it will therefore be impossible for Government ever to be in a position to prepare a detailed scheme for the expenditure of this amount.

"Turning now to the non-recurring grant of 20 lakhs and the recurring grant of 5 lakhs for sanitation, the first of these is earmarked for sanitation in urban areas, but the recurring grant is not so earmarked. Government is asked to draw up a detailed scheme for spending this money. When the first grant of sanitation was made four or five years ago, the system on which Government is asked to proceed was actually adopted, and Sir Edward Baker characterised the result as the worst form of financial inaptitude he had ever seen. Again, a year or two ago an endeavour was made with the assistance of the Sanitary Board to work out some sort of programme of water-supply and drainage schemes so that we might, if possible, earmark our sanitary allotment in advance, but it was found to be impracticable. Hon'ble Members will be aware how slowly the wheels move in matters of this kind in the ordinary municipality. When a municipality has decided that it wants a water-supply scheme or a drainage scheme, it has first to decide exactly what kind of scheme it wants, how much it can afford to spend on it and when it is prepared to undertake it. A sketch project is drawn up and this has to be approved by the municipality, the financial arrangement for its execution worked out and the cost of maintenance provided for. This project then comes to Government for its approval of the general scheme and the financial details for providing both for capital cost and maintenance. After administrative approval has been given, the detailed project is drawn up. In all these stages there is liable to be a delay, and Government has always refused to give any grant until the detailed project has been prepared and the work is ready for execution. Government has only one interest in the matter, namely, that the amount at its disposal for sanitary assistance shall go as far as possible, and it is obviously undesirable to lock up Government grants in schemes which may not mature for some years or may finally be dropped. It has been found impossible for the Sanitary Engineer to say definitely at the commencement of each year what schemes will actually be started during that year. In practice what has happened in the past is that at the commencement of the year the Financial Department obtains from the Sanitary Engineer a list of the schemes which in his opinion are most likely to come to a head during the year. We then worry the local officers and the municipalities and endeavour to urge them forward and get the schemes started. As soon as a scheme is within reasonable distance of starting, we hand over the grant which Government has decided to make. I have here a list of schemes of water-supply and drainage, the total estimated cost of which is Rs. 98,28,000. In addition to these, the Sanitary Engineer has further detailed schemes of drainage amounting to Rs. 14,95,000 and sketch projects amounting to Rs. 18,75,000. The delay is not due to any reluctance on the part of Government to give grants. In the coming year we have provided altogether for about 23 lakhs, of which only 6¼ lakhs come from the Government of India's non-recurring grant of 20 lakhs, and we are prepared to give not only 6¼ lakhs but probably 20 lakhs as assistance to schemes of water-supply and drainage, if only the schemes can be pushed forward to a stage in which it is possible for Government to give grants; Government only requires to be satisfied that any project for which it is asked to give a grant is professionally and financially sound and, in order to make the grants go as far as possible, a rough rule has been adopted that the municipality concerned must provide for two-thirds of the cost.

"I trust that the Council will see that it is not practicable for Government to draw up in advance a list of the projects to which it proposes to give grants during the coming year. It is against the financial rules in the Civil Account Code to pay a grant until it is about to be utilised, and it is obviously in the interests of the Province that the available money shall be given to those schemes which are ready for execution, and it would be inadvisable to defer giving the money till the following year merely in order that a list of such schemes might be prepared. I should be glad to provide any Hon'ble Member at any time with information regarding the grants already given in any year or earmarked in that year, but at the present moment there are only two schemes which are before Government for a grant. In these circumstances I hope the Hon'ble Member will see his way to withdraw his resolution."

The HON'BLE BABU SURENDRA NATH BANERJI said :—

"My Lord, I quite appreciate the difficulties of the Government and I quite understand that in this matter there can be no difference of interest as between the Government and ourselves. What I was going to suggest is this : That I might for the present withdraw the motion and move it foward again when the Government has more time to consider the various projects which are before them for consideration. Will that be acceptable to the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Department? I am prepared to withdraw it for the present and bring it forward when the Government is in a better position to decide on the schemes which we have outlined."

The Hon'ble Nawab Shams-ul-Huda said :—

"My Lord, if the Hon'ble Member withdraws the resolution, it may be open to him at any time to bring forward a fresh resolution and if at that time the Government is in a position to meet his wishes there will be no disposition on the part of the Government not to do so."

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji said :—

"My Lord, if the Government will approach us in a sympathetic spirit and try to meet us half way when we bring it forward again I think that would be an acceptable assurance."

The President then read out Rule 26 of the Rules of the Resolutions on matters of general public interest, which was to the effect that if the resolution was withdrawn now it could not be brought up again for a year.

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Banerji then asked that his motion may be put to the vote.

The resolution was put, and the Council divided as follows :—

The HON'BLE MAHARAJADHIRAJA BAHADUR OF BURDWAN said :—

"My Lord, I desire to offer a personal explanation to the Hon'ble Mr. Lyon under Rule 10, with reference to the Dacca University scheme. We had a conference in Calcutta at the house of the Nawab Bahadur of Murshidabad, convened by my friends the Hon'ble Nawab Sir Khwaja Salimullah Bahadur of Dacca, the Hon'ble Babu Ananda Chandra Ray and some other gentlemen from East Bengal and also some gentlemen from West Bengal. At this conference we were asked to vote or give our votes to a scheme which was meant to extend practically to the whole of Bengal, namely, the establishment of a well-to-do classes college at Dacca.

Raja Peary Mohan Mukharji, Raja Kisorilal Goswami and myself opposed this. But what we agreed to was, and that on the assurance of the Hon'ble Nawab Bahadur of Dacca and the Hon'ble Babu Ananda Chandra Ray, that if they would find the funds from the back fees of what was known as landlord's fees lying in the Collectorates in the Dacca and Chittagong Divisions, we would not object to their having a well-to-do classes college at Dacca, but on condition that it was only for Dacca and Chittagong and not for the whole of Bengal. One other point I should like to emphasize is that it was never mooted to us that this college would be part and parcel of the Dacca University scheme. That is all the explanation I have got to offer."

The Council was then adjourned sine die.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

FORECAST OF THE RABI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1912-13.

[NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1910-11, the area under summer rice in Bengal represents some 0·5 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.]

Explanatory.—The crops dealt with in the present forecast are the spring crops, such as summer rice, barley, gram, tobacco, etc., which are generally sown during September and October and harvested between February and April. In the food-crops are included kalai, arhar, mung, peas, lentils, kheshari, kulthi, buck wheat, cheena, potatoes, yams, melons and chillies and in the non-food-crops, tobacco, ganja, fodder, fibres, etc.

Character of the Season.—The rainfall in September, though below the normal, was general and sufficient for the sowings of the crops in normal time. In October the rainfall was in excess of the normal. There were good showers of rain in the beginning of November which favoured the growth of the crops. During December there was no rain, and insufficient rainfall in January adversely affected the growth of the crops. The rainfall in February, being general over the Province, improved prospects in many places, but being excessive in some places caused some damage. The season on the whole, though better than last year, has not been up to average.

Acreage.—The normal area under the different rabi crops in the Province dealt with in the forecast is estimated at 3,832,800 acres. The area actually sown this year is reported to be 3,109,300 acres against 3,169,200 acres last year which shows a slight decrease. 314,700 acres are reported to be under summer (boro) rice this year against 316,900 acres last year.

Outturn.—Estimated precentage of outturn in the 16 districts where the crop is most important is as follows :—Bakarganj 100, Burdwan and Mymensingh 93, Jalpaiguri 91, Malda and Tippera 90, Dacca 87, Pabna 86, Murshidabad 83. Rangpur 77, Jessore and Noakhali 76, Midnapore 75, Nadia 69, Faridpur 65, and Rajshahi 58.

According to the estimate of the district officers the outturn of the different rabi crops for the Province as a whole works out to 83 per cent. of the normal against 79 per cent. last year.

Accepting 90 per cent. as the outturn of summer rice, the gross yield of the crop for the Province, on the basis of a normal yield of 13½ maunds of clean grain per acre, is estimated at 2,809,200 cwts. against 2,797,400 cwts. last year. The increase works out to 0·4 per cent. only.

MIDNAPORE.	Barley	1,200	900	1,000	75	75	November ...	February.	The rainfall of November hampered the cultivation, and the late rain during the harvesting time was not favourable. Very slight damage was done to some of the crops by the late rains. Hence the outturn is expected to be a little less than the normal. The decrease in area, mainly under summer rice, rabi cereals and other rabi non-food-crops is reported to be due to want of timely rain in some parts and excessive rainfall in November. RESOLUTION ON THE BUDGET ESTIMATES OF THE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE PORT OF CALCUTTA FOR THE YEAR 1913-14.

No. 1391Marine.

Government of Bengal.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Dated Calcutta, the 22nd April 1913.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

Letter No. 12801, dated the 31st March 1913, from the Vice Chairman of the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta, submitting the budget estimates of income and expenditure of the Port Trust for the year 1913-14.

CAPITAL ACCOUNT.

An expenditure of Rs. 68,76,389 is provided for during the year on Capital Account. It is proposed to meet this expenditure, and a probable deficit of about Rs. 2½ lakhs on Capital Account on the 31st March 1913, by the issue of a debenture loan of Rs. 70 lakhs and by the transfer of 1½ lakhs from the Vessels Replacement Fund. A sum of Rs. 42,63,180 has been provided for Works in Progress, including the additional Jetty and Warehouses commenced in 1912-13 to relieve the congestion at the import jetties, Rs. 25,13,209 for Original Works, and the balance, Rs. 1,00,000, for unforeseen works. The following new works costing above Rs. 50,000 each have been provided for :—

Name of work	Amount of estimate	Amount provided for during 1913-14
	Rs.	Rs.

8. Railway approaches to the new river-side berths and reclamation of land for diversion of roads and the re-alignment of the Eastern Bengal State Railway (Dock Extension Scheme).	.....	2,00,000

REVENUE ACCOUNT.

2. Income.—It is anticipated that the income of the Trust for the year just closed will amount to Rs. 113 lakhs, or Rs. 2½ lakhs better than the estimate of the year, and Rs. 7¼ lakhs over the actual income of 1911-12. With these figures before them the Commissioners have budgetted for an income of Rs. 1,46,92,410 in the year 1913-14, which they believe will be fully realized.

There has been a general improvement in all the sources of income, and the Commissioners anticipate that this improvement will be maintained in both imports and exports. Large increases are expected under the following heads :—

	Estimate, 1912-13	Estimate, 1913-14	Increase
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
River Dues ...	25,32,000	25,84,000	52,000
Ferry Service ...	3,00,000	3,70,000	70,000
Wet Docks ...	43,30,425	44,80,685	1,50,260
Railway ...	14,13,750	15,65,220	1,51,470

3. Expenditure.—The total expenditure of the year is estimated at Rs. 1,45,58,922, out of which Rs. 60,41,366 represent obligatory charges, such as interest and sinking fund charges, leaving a surplus income of Rs. 1,33,488 as against an expenditure of Rs. 1,36,42,870 and a surplus of Rs. 4,21,193 for 1912-13. Under establishment charges provision has been made for an increase of nearly Rs. 2 lakhs, principally in the Traffic Department under Jetties, Docks and Railway : this is chiefly due to a reorganization of the system of working at the jetties. Further changes involving an increase of establishment are also contemplated to facilitate the delivery and removal of imports and relieve the congestion at the jetties.

A general summary of the estimates submitted by the Commissioners is given below :—

Provided that, if the certificate-debtor pays the amount entered in the warrant of arrest as due under the certificate, and the costs of the arrest, to the officer arresting him, such officer shall at once release him.

Release from arrest and re-arrest.

30. (1) The Collector may order the release of a certificate-debtor who has been arrested in execution of a certificate, upon being satisfied that he has disclosed the whole of his property and has placed it at the disposal of the Certificate-officer and that he has not committed any act of bad faith.

(3) if he appeals, in accordance with section 51, from an order passed under section 10—from the date of the decision of such appeal, bring a suit in a Civil Court to have the certificate cancelled or modified, and for any further consequential relief to which he may be entitled:

Provided that no such suit shall be entertained—

(a) in any case, if the certificate-debtor has omitted to file, in accordance with section 9, a petition denying liability, or to state in his petition denying liability the ground upon which he claims to have the certificate cancelled or modified, and cannot satisfy the Court that there was good reason for the omission, or

(b) in the case of a certificate for a demand mentioned in Article 1 or Article 2 of Schedule I, if the certificate-debtor has not paid the amount due under the certificate to the Certificate-officer—

(i) within thirty days from the service of the notice required by section 7, or

(ii) if he has filed, in accordance with section 9, a petition denying liability—then within thirty days from the date of the determination of the petition, or

(iii) if he has appealed in accordance with section 51—then within thirty days from the decision of the appeal:

Provided also that no sale in execution of a certificate shall be set aside in such a suit unless the purchaser has been made a party to the suit and until a direction is made for the refund of the amount of the purchase-money, with such interest (if any) as the Court may allow.

Grounds for cancellation or modification of certificate by Civil Court.

35. (1) No certificate duly filed under this Act shall be cancelled by a Civil Court, except on one of the following grounds, namely:—

Suit to recover possession of, or to set aside sale of, immovable property, where notice of certificate not served.

36. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, a sale of immovable property in execution of a certificate shall not be held to be void on the ground that the notice required by section 7 has not been served; but a suit may be brought in a Civil Court to recover possession of such property or to set aside such sale on the ground that such notice has not been served, and that the plaintiff has sustained substantial injury by reason of the irregularity:

Provided that no such suit shall be entertained—

(a) if instituted more than one year from the date on which possession of the property was delivered to the purchaser, or

(a) where such produce is a growing crop—on the land on which such crop has grown, or

15. (1) Where agricultural produce is attached, the Certificate-officer shall make such arrangements for the custody thereof as he may deem sufficient, and, when the produce is a growing crop, shall have regard to the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Certificate-officer in this behalf, either in the order of attachment or in any subsequent order, the certificate-debtor may tend, cut, gather and store the produce and do any other act necessary for maturing or preserving it; and, if the certificate-debtor fails to do all or any of such acts, the certificate-holder may, with the permission of the Certificate-officer and subject to the like conditions, do all or any of them either by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, and the costs incurred by the certificate-holder shall be recoverable from the certificate-debtor as if they were included in the certificate.

(3) Agricultural produce attached as a growing crop shall not be deemed to have ceased to be under attachment or to require re-attachment merely because it has been severed from the soil.

(4) Where an order for the attachment of a growing crop has been made at a considerable time before the crop is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered, the Certificate-officer may suspend the execution of the order for such time as he thinks fit, and may, in his discretion, make a further order prohibiting the removal of the crop pending the execution of the order of attachment.

(5) A growing crop which from its nature does not admit of being stored shall not be attached under this rule at any time less than twenty days before the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

(ii) in the case of the share—the person in whose name the share may be standing from transferring the same or receiving any dividend thereon;

(iii) in the case of the other movable property (except as aforesaid)—the person in possession of the same from giving it over to the certificate-debtor.

(2) A copy of such order shall be affixed on some conspicuous part of the office of the Certificate-officer, and another copy shall be sent, in the case of the debt, to the debtor, in the case of the share, to the proper officer of the Corporation, and, in the case of the other movable property (except as aforesaid), to the person in possession of the same.

(3) A debtor prohibited under clause (i) of sub-rule (1) may pay the amount of his debt to the Certificate-officer, and such payment shall discharge him as effectually as payment to the party entitled to receive the same.

Attachment of share in movables.

17. Where the property to be attached consists of the share or interest of the certificate-debtor in movable property belonging to him and another as co-owners, the attachment shall be made by a notice to the certificate-debtor prohibiting him from transferring the share or interest or charging it in any way.

Attachment of salary or allowances of public officer or servant of Railway Company or Local Authority.

18. (1) Where the property to be attached is the salary or allowances of a public officer or of a servant of a Railway Company or Local Authority, the Certificate-officer, whether the certificate-debtor or the disbursing officer is or is not within the local limits of the Certificate-officer's jurisdiction, may order that the amount shall be withheld from such salary or allowances, either in one payment or by monthly instalments as the Certificate-officer may direct; and, upon notice of the order to such officer as the Local Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint in this behalf, the officer or other person whose duty it is to disburse such salary or allowances shall withhold and remit to the Certificate-officer the amount due under the order, or the monthly instalments, as the case may be.

(2) Where the attachable proportion of such salary or allowances is already being withheld and remitted to a Certificate-officer or to a Civil Court in pursuance of a previous and unsatisfied order of attachment, the officer appointed by the Local Government in this behalf shall forthwith return the subsequent order to the Certificate-officer issuing it, with a full statement of all the particulars of the existing attachment.

(3) Every order made under this rule, unless it is returned in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (2), shall, without further notice or other process, bind the Government or the Railway Company or Local Authority, as the case may be; and the Government or the Railway Company or Local Authority, as the case may be, shall be liable for any sum paid in contravention of this rule.

Attachment of negotiable instruments.

19. Where the property is a negotiable instrument not deposited in a Court, nor in the custody of a public officer, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the instrument shall be brought before the Certificate-officer and held subject to his orders.

Attachment of property in custody of Court or public officer.

20. Where the property to be attached is in the custody of any Court or public officer, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such Court or officer, requesting that such property, and any interest or dividend becoming payable thereon, may be held subject to the further orders of the Certificate-officer by whom the notice is issued:

Provided that, where such property is in the custody of a Court, any question of title or priority arising between the certificate-holder and any other person, not being the certificate-debtor, claiming to be interested in such property by virtue of any assignment, attachment or otherwise, shall be determined by such Court.

Attachment of immovable property.

21. Where the property is immovable, no attachment need be made before sale.

Removal of attachment on satisfaction or cancellation of certificate.

22. Where—

(a) the amount due, with costs and all charges and expenses resulting from the attachment of any property or incurred in order to a sale, are paid to the Certificate-officer, or

(b) the certificate is cancelled, the attachment shall be deemed to be withdrawn, and, in the case of immovable property, the withdrawal shall, if the certificate debtor so desires, be proclaimed at his expense, and a copy of the proclamation shall be affixed in the manner prescribed by rule 30, sub-rule (1).

(Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.—Schedule II.—Rules.—Rules 23—29.)

Investigation of claims and objections.

Investigation by Certificate-officer.

23. (1) Where any claim is preferred to, or any objection is made to the attachment or sale of, any property in execution of a certificate, on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment or sale, the Certificate-officer shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection:

Provided that no such investigation shall be made where the Certificate-officer considers that the claim or objection was designedly or unnecessarily delayed.

(2) Where the property to which the claim or objection applies has been advertised for sale, the Certificate-officer ordering the sale may postpone it pending the investigation of the claim or objection.

Evidence to be adduced.

24. The claimant or objector must adduce evidence to show that—

25. Where, upon the said investigation, the Certificate-officer is satisfied that, for the reason stated in the claim or objection, such property was not,—

(a) (in the case of immovable property) at the date of the service of the notice under section 7, or in the possession of the certificate-debtor or of some person in trust for him or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, or that, being in the possession of the certificate-debtor at the said date, it was so in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the Certificate-officer shall make an order releasing the property, wholly or to such extent as he thinks fit, from attachment or sale.

(b) (in the case of movable property) at the date of the attachment,

Disallowance of claim to property attached.

26. Where the Certificate-officer is satisfied that the property was, at the said date, in the possession of the certificate-debtor as his own property and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, the Certificate-officer shall disallow the claim.

Saving of suits to establish right to attached property.

27. Where a claim or an objection is preferred, the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit in a Civil Court to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute; but, subject to the result of such suit (if any), the order shall be conclusive.

VIII of 1885.

(b) if such produce has been cut or gathered—at or near the threshing-floor or place for treading out grain or the like, or fodder-stack, on or in which it is deposited:

Provided that the Certificate-officer may direct the sale to be held at the nearest place of public resort, if he is of opinion that the produce is thereby likely to sell to greater advantage.

(2) Where, on the produce being put up for sale,—

(a) a fair price, in the estimation of the person holding the sale, is not offered for it, and

(b) the owner of the produce, or a person authorised to act in his behalf, applies to have the sale postponed till the next day or, if a market is held at the place of sale, the next market day, the sale shall be postponed accordingly, and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the produce.

Special provisions relating to growing crops.

VIII of 1885.

(2) The purchaser at a sale under this rule may, in manner provided by section 167 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, and not otherwise, annul any incumbrance on the holding. VIII of 1885.

Rules 42 to 44 not to apply in certain cases to certificate-holders who are co-sharer landholders.

45. Where the certificate-holder is a co-sharer landlord and the certificate is for his share of the rent only, the provisions of rules 42, 43, and 44 shall not apply.

Postponement of sale to enable certificate-debtor to raise amount due under certificate.

46. (1) Where an order for the sale of immovable property has been made, if the certificate-debtor can satisfy the Certificate-officer that there is reason to believe that the amount of the certificate may be raised by the mortgage or lease or private sale of such property, or some part thereof, or of any other immovable property of the certificate-debtor, the Certificate-officer may, on his application, postpone the sale of the property comprised in the order for sale, on such terms and for such period as he thinks proper, to enable him to raise the amount.

(2) In such case the Certificate-officer shall grant a certificate to the certificate-debtor, authorising him, within a period to be mentioned therein, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 8 or section 18, to make the proposed mortgage, lease or sale:

Provided that all moneys payable under such mortgage, lease or sale shall be paid, not to the certificate-debtor, but to the Certificate-officer:

Provided also that no mortgage, lease or sale under this rule shall become absolute until it has been confirmed by the Certificate-officer.

Prohibition of purchase of tenure or holding by certificate-debtor.

47. (1) When a tenure or holding, situated in an area in which Chapter XIV of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, is in force, is put up for sale in execution of a certificate for arrears of rent due in respect thereof, the certificate-debtor shall not bid for or purchase the tenure or holding. VIII of 1885.

(2) If a certificate-debtor purchases, by himself or through another person, a tenure or holding so sold, the Certificate-officer may, if he thinks fit, on the application of the certificate-holder or any other person interested in the sale, by order, set aside the sale; and the costs of the application and order, and any deficiency of price which may happen on the re-sale, and all expenses attending it, shall be paid by the certificate-debtor.

Deposit by purchaser, and re-sale in default.

48. On every sale of immovable property, the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay, immediately after such declaration, a deposit of twenty-five per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money, to the officer or other person conducting the sale; and, in default of such deposit, the property shall forthwith be re-sold.

Time for payment of purchase-money in full.

49. The full amount of purchase-money payable shall be paid by the purchaser to the Certificate-officer on or before the fifteenth day from the sale of the property.

Procedure in default of payment.

50. In default of payment within the period mentioned in rule 49, the deposit may, if the Certificate-officer thinks fit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government, and the property shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

(Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.—Schedule II.—Rules.—Rules 51—59.)

Notification on re-sale.

51. Every re-sale of immovable property, in default of payment of the purchase-money within the period allowed for such payment, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner and for the period hereinbefore prescribed for the sale.

Bid of co-sharer to have preference.

52. Where the property sold is a share of undivided immovable property, and two or more persons, of whom one is a co-sharer, respectively bid the same sum for such property or for any lot, the bid shall be deemed to be the bid of the co-sharer.

Return of purchase-money in certain cases.

53. Where a sale of immovable property is set aside, any money paid or deposited by the purchaser on account of the purchase, together with the penalty (if any) referred to in clause (b) of section 22, and such interest as the Certificate-officer may allow, shall be paid to the purchaser.

Certificate to purchaser.

54. (1) Where a sale of immovable property has become absolute, the Certificate-officer shall grant a certificate specifying the property sold and the name of the person who at the time of sale is declared to be the purchaser.

(2) Such certificate shall bear date the day on which the sale became absolute.

Delivery of property in occupancy of certificate-debtor.

55. Where the immovable property sold is in the occupancy of the certificate-debtor, or of some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming under a title created by the certificate-debtor subsequently to the service of the notice issued under section 7, and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under rule 54, the Certificate-officer shall, on the application of the purchaser, order delivery to be made by putting such purchaser, or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession of the property, and, if need be, by removing any person who refuses to vacate the same.

Delivery of property in occupancy of tenant or other person.

56. Where the property sold is in the occupancy of a tenant or other person entitled to occupy the same, and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under rule 54, the Certificate-officer shall, on the application of the purchaser, order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of sale in some conspicuous place on the property, and proclaiming to the occupant by beat of drum or other customary mode, at some convenient place, that the interest of the certificate-debtor has been transferred to the purchaser.

Arrest and detention.

Discretionary power to permit certificate-debtor to show cause against detention in prison.

57. (1) The Certificate-officer may, before issuing a warrant for the arrest of the certificate-debtor, issue a notice calling upon him to appear before the Certificate-officer, on a day to be specified in the notice, and show cause why he should not be committed to the civil prison.

(2) Where appearance is not made in obedience to the notice, the Certificate-officer may issue a warrant for the arrest of the certificate-debtor.

Subsistence allowance.

58. (1) When a certificate has been signed either in accordance with the provisions of section 4, or on a requisition made under section 5, no certificate-debtor shall be arrested in execution of the certificate unless and until the certificate-holder pays into Court such sum as the Certificate-officer thinks sufficient for the subsistence of the certificate-debtor from the time of his arrest until he can be brought before the Certificate-officer.

(2) When a certificate-debtor is committed to the civil prison in execution of a certificate, the Certificate-officer shall fix for his subsistence such monthly allowance as he may be entitled to according to the scale fixed by the Local Government for the subsistence of arrested judgment-debtors, or, where no such scale has been fixed, as the Certificate-officer considers sufficient with reference to the class to which the certificate-debtor belongs.

(3) The monthly allowance fixed by the Certificate-officer shall be supplied, by the person upon whose requisition the certificate was signed, by monthly payments in advance before the first day of each month.

(4) The first payment shall be made to the Certificate-officer for such portion of the current month as remains unexpired before the certificate-debtor is committed to the civil prison; and the subsequent payments (if any) shall be made to the officer in charge of the civil prison.

(5) Sums disbursed by the certificate-holder for the subsistence of the certificate-debtor in the civil prison shall be deemed to be costs in the proceeding:

Provided that the certificate-debtor shall not be detained in the civil prison or arrested on account of any sum so disbursed.
